Dear Mr Ashmore,

Freedom of Information Request: LEX 56478

Decision

1. The Department of Veterans' Affairs (Department) has undertaken a reasonable search of its records and has not been able to identify any documents relevant to your request.
2. For this reason, I have made a decision to refuse your request under section 24A(1)(b)(ii) of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act), as the documents do not exist.

Authority to make decision

3. I, Natalie (Position Number 62211022), Senior Information Access Officer, Information Access Unit, Client Rehabilitation Access Branch, am an officer authorised by the Secretary of the Department to make decisions about access to documents in the possession of the Department in accordance with section 23(1) of the FOI Act.

Summary

4. On 6 March 2023, you made a request for access to documents in the possession of the Department. Your request sought access to:

'...I am seeking:

: All documents, including internal emails, prior to the formal commencement of reassessing relevant batches where excessive error rates are noted, and

: All documents, including internal emails, pertaining to the results of all reviews undertaken as a result of Recommendation 9.3...'

Background: -

Recommendation 9.3 of the Productivity Commission, June 2019 was, "if DVA's quality assurance processes identifies excessive error rates (for example, greater than the Department's internal targets), all claims in the batch which the sample was obtained should be recalled for assessment."

DVA's response on their website noted, "Progressing," then "the implementation of this recommendation will involve on-going improvement...'

5. On 9 March 2023, the Department acknowledged your request via email.
6. As no extensions of time have been applied to process your request, a decision on your request was due by 5 April 2023.

Material taken into account

7. In accordance with section 26(1)(a) of the FOI Act, my findings on any material question of fact, the material on which those findings were based and the reasons for my decision to refuse access to your request follows.
8. I have taken the following material into account in making my decision:
 - the terms of your request on 6 March 2023;
 - the types of documents that are in the possession of the Department;
 - my correspondence with different business areas within the Department;
 - Sections 3, 11 and 11A of the FOI Act which give the Australian community a legally enforceable right to obtain access to information held by the Government of the Commonwealth. I also considered the following provisions of the FOI Act relevant to my decision:
 - Section 15 Request for Access;
 - Section 17 Requests involving use of computers etc. (e.g. requests for the Department to create a document)

- Section 24A Request may be refused if documents cannot be found or do not exist
- Guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under section 93A of the FOI Act (FOI Guidelines).

9. A full extract of all FOI Act provisions used to make my decision are provided in Schedule 2.

Reasons for decision

Requests may be refused if documents cannot be found, do not exist or have not been received (section 24A)

10. Section 24A(1) of the FOI Act provides that an agency or Minister may refuse a request for access to a document if:

- a. all reasonable steps have been taken to find the document; and
- b. the agency or Minister is satisfied that the document:
 - (i) is in the agency's or Minister's possession but cannot be found; or
 - (ii) does not exist.

11. I am satisfied that all reasonable steps have been taken to find information relevant to your request, having regard to:

- the terms of your request;
- the subject matter of the documents;
- the current and past file management systems and the practice of orderly destruction or removal of documents;
- the Department's record management systems and practices; and
- the individuals and areas within the Department who may be able to assist with the location of the information you seek access to.

12. Despite the reasonable searches undertaken, the Department has been unable to identify documents relevant to your request. A description of the searches undertaken to locate the documents which you are seeking to access is at Schedule 1.

13. For these reasons, I am refusing your request for access to documents as described in your request in accordance with section 24A(1)(b)(ii) of the FOI Act, on the basis that the document do not exist.

Requests involving use of computers etc. (section 17)

14. In making my decision to refuse your request I also considered the application of section 17 of the FOI Act and whether a document could be created to meet the terms of this part of your request.
15. Subject to section 17(1)(c)(i), I decided that the department was not in a position to create a written document, via the use of a computer or other equipment that is ordinarily available to the department for the purposes of retrieving or collating stored information.

Your rights of review

16. If you are dissatisfied with my decision, you may apply for internal review or request the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) review my decision. We encourage you to seek internal review as a first step to resolve any concerns you may have.

OAIC review

17. Under section 54L of the FOI Act, you may apply to the OAIC to review my decision. An application for review by OAIC must be made in writing within 60 days of the date of this letter, and be lodged in one of the following ways:

Summary of document searches

While DVA supports the intent of the recommendation around improving quality of claims decisions, DVA did not support the proposed reviewing of all decisions in a quality assurance batch where a high error rate is found in response to Recommendation 9.3. DVA prefers to adopt a case by case approach through its existing quality assurance program and takes corrective action on errors and trends found in specific case decisions examined in quality assurance batches, for example, staff training, system changes, and issue of guidance, policy clarification and new policy advice for staff, and work in this space is ongoing. Therefore no documents exist within scope of your request.

- (6) Despite subsection (5), the agency or Minister is not required to give access to the document at a particular time if, at that time, the document is both:
