Dear Mr Sweeney

Freedom of Information Request No. 165-2023

Decision and reasons for the decision

I refer to your request dated 16 August 2023 under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) in which you seek access to documents in the possession of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC).

Your request seeks access to the following:

*The document or documents I seek is/are any correspondence from AFCA to ASIC that makes mention of any alleged Conspiracy to Defraud making mention of NULIS Nominees (Aust) Ltd and an AFCA Decision-Maker (whether the AFCA Decision-Maker is identified by name or not).
The name of the AFCA Decision-Maker can be redacted in the FOI Response.
The search period is from 20 May 2021.*

I have conducted a search of ASIC's systems including ASIC Search, CRM and Sharepoint in response to your request and have found no documents falling within the terms of your request. As a result, your request is refused in line with paragraph 24A(1)(b)(ii) of the FOI Act, which provides:

Requests may be refused if documents cannot be found, do not exist or have not been received

Document lost or non-existent

- (1) An agency or Minister may refuse a request for access to a document if:
  - (a) all reasonable steps have been taken to find the document; and
  - (b) the agency or Minister is satisfied that the document
    - (i) is in the agency's or Minister's possession but cannot be found; or

(ii) does not exist.

I searched ASIC's systems for files related to Nulis Nominees (Aust) Pty Ltd. I found no documents falling within the scope of your request. I am satisfied the documents do not exist.
