Information Commissioner Review Application form

Getting started

The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner can review a Freedom of Information (FOI) decision made by an Australian Government agency or an Australian Government Minister.

The Office does not review FOI decisions made by State, Territory or local government agencies.

The Office encourages you to apply for an internal review by the agency before lodging a request for review with this Office. Information relating to the internal review process (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/reviews/internal-review/>) is available on our website (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/>).

The Information Commissioner has given a general direction under s 55(2)(e)(i) of the FOI Act which sets out the procedure to be followed by applicants for IC reviews undertaken by the Information

Commissioner under the FOI Act. To view the direction (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/reviews/direction-as-to-certain-procedures-to-be-followed-by-applicants-in-information-commissioner-reviews>) and the 'Quick guide' (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/reviews/quick-guide-information-commissioner-review-direction-for-applicants>), please visit our website.

Information relating to the Information Commissioner review process (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/reviews/information-commissioner-review-process/>) is available on our website. Part 10 of the FOI Guidelines (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/foi-guidelines/part-10-review-by-the-information-commissioner/>) (Review by the Information Commissioner) describes the principles that inform the Oaic's approach to Information Commissioner review.

An application for review must be submitted in writing, either via this form, an email, or in a letter. If you have trouble completing this form please send an email to FOIDR@oaic.gov.au.

Is the decision that you are seeking review of an original decision or an internal review decision? *

Original decision
Internal review decision

When was the decision made? *

25 Mar 2024

In most cases you must apply for IC review (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/foi-guidelines/part-10-review-by-the-information-commissioner/#application-for-ic-review>) within 60 days of being notified of the Minister's or agency's decision to refuse access to documents (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/foi-guidelines/part-10-review-by-the-information-commissioner/#access-refusal-decisions>). You must apply within 30 days if you are requesting review of a decision to grant access to documents to another person (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/foi-guidelines/part-10-review-by-the-information-commissioner/#access-grant-decisions>).

You can also ask the Information Commissioner to grant you more time to apply for IC review.

Is your application for IC review being made within the above timeframes? *

Yes	No
-----	----

I am seeking IC review because the Agency or Minister (more than one option can be selected if appropriate): *

refused access to documents or parts of documents I requested

Advise scope of review. *

Please provide a summary of which exemption/s you disagree with and provide reasons why you disagree.

Are there any particular documents (noting document or folio number) that you would like reviewed?

My reasons for disagreeing are set out here in my application for internal review dated 23 February 2024:
www.righttoknow.org.au/request/foi_2023_10082_emails_or_other_c#outgoing-22334

The internal review decision maker has not, in my opinion, addressed my concerns and has simply invited me to resubmit an FOI request, which is not appropriate.

- refused access because a practical refusal reason exists
- refused access because documents cannot be found
- deferred access to documents I requested
- refused to make corrections to my personal information
- decided to release information about me or my business.
- charged me incorrectly
- granted access to documents but I have not received them
- granted access to a qualified person and not directly to me
- refused to extend the time for me to seek an internal review
- granted access to documents that I was consulted about
- granted access to documents that my business was consulted about

Please provide a summary of why you think the decision is wrong *

My reasons were set out in my internal review request. The internal review decision maker has not addressed the substance of my internal review request and has simply stated that I should reapply for the documents with a new FOI request. He has also not, in my opinion, addressed the substance of my request for document 4. His reasons in respect of document 4 are unsatisfactory.

If you would like review of the personal privacy exemption (s 47F), do you have consent of the third party/ies whose information you seek
