

Document 1

1. Total number of applicants with disabilities who have applied for positions through the RecruitAbility Scheme:
 - The Australian Public Service Commission externally advertised a total of 120 vacancies from 1 July 2022 to 8 April 2024. Of those 120 vacancies advertised, 200 potential candidates applied under the RecruitAbility scheme.
2. Number of successful applicants offered positions
 - Out of the 200 potential candidates the Commission received, 10 candidates were successfully offered and accepted a position. This does not reflect the applicants who were initially shortlisted for interview, are currently sitting in a merit pool or may have declined the opportunity.

Please note that this document has been created under section 17 of the FOI Act, as the data you sought were not readily available in discrete form within the Commission.
