Dear Julie Simpson

FOI Application dated 31 August 2015

I refer to your request dated 31 August 2015 (FOI request), which was acknowledged by APRA on 14 September.

In your request you sought access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth) to the following documents:

"...a copy of any correspondence addressed to the Chairman of ASIC in relation to Deeds of a superannuation trust in the possession of ASIC that may assist Victoria Police with their inquiries that relate to a superannuation fund, once known as the Elders IXL Superannuation Fund and more recently as the AusBev Superannuation Fund".

Explanation

All reasonable steps have been taken to find documents sought in your FOI request. Attached is the notice of decision with statement of reasons. The statement of reasons also sets out your rights of review.

Please contact me on 02 9210 3100 or foi@apra.gov.au if you have any queries.

Yours sincerely

Ben Carruthers
FOI Officer

NOTICE OF DECISION MADE UNDER SECTION 23
OF THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1982 (the FOI Act)
WITH REASONS FOR DECISION PROVIDED UNDER SECTION 26

Applicant: Julie Simpson

Decision-maker: Ben Carruthers, an authorised officer of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) for the purposes of subsection 23(1) of the FOI Act

Relevant documents: Request for any correspondence from 1 August 2015 addressed to the Chairman of ASIC in relation to Deeds of a superannuation trust in the possession of ASIC that may assist Victoria Police with their inquiries that relate to a superannuation fund, once known as the Elders IXL Superannuation Fund and more recently as the AusBev Superannuation Fund

My decision: Refuse access, under section 24A(1)(b)(ii) of the FOI Act, as the documents do not exist.

MATERIAL FACTS

1. By email dated 31 August 2015 and received by APRA on 31 August 2015, the Applicant sought the following documents from 1 August 2015:

“...a copy of any correspondence addressed to the Chairman of ASIC in relation to Deeds of a superannuation trust in the possession of ASIC that may assist Victoria Police with their inquiries that relate to a superannuation fund, once known as the Elders IXL Superannuation Fund and more recently as the AusBev Superannuation Fund”.

2. On 14 September 2015 APRA acknowledged the request.

EVIDENCE AND MATERIAL RELIED ON

3. In making my decision, I have relied on the following evidence and material:
 - a) the Applicant’s request received on 31 August 2015;
 - b) acknowledgment email with attached letter from FOI Officer to the Applicant dated 14 September 2015;
 - c) consultation with APRA’s ASIC Liaison Officer on 21 September 2015;
 - d) consultation with Manager, Supervision on 28 September 2015;
 - e) relevant sections of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (SIS Act);
 - f) relevant sections of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998 (APRA Act);

- g) relevant sections of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act); and
- h) Guidelines issued by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC Guidelines) to date.

REASONS FOR DECISION

- 4. Based on internal document searches and the advice of the relevant APRA staff, I am satisfied that APRA does not possess documents that respond to your request.
- 5. On 30 September 2015, I have decided to refuse access under section 24A(1)(b)(ii) of the FOI Act, given that no documents relevant to the request exist.

EXPLANATION OF LEGISLATION

- 6. Subsection 24A(1) of the FOI Act provides that an agency may refuse a request for access to a document if all reasonable steps have been taken to find the document, and the agency is satisfied that the document is either in the agency's possession but cannot be located, or does not exist.
- 7. APRA is not required to create a new document to satisfy an FOI request (see page 41 of the OAIC Guidelines).
- 8. Based on the information before me, APRA has taken all reasonable steps to locate the requested documents, and I am satisfied that APRA does not hold the requested documents. Accordingly, I have refused access under section 24A(1)(b)(ii) of the FOI Act.
- 9. An extract of section 24A of the FOI Act is attached.

COMMENT

- 10. If documents responding to the request did exist, the documents are most likely to be protected documents or contain protected information, as those terms are defined in section 56 of the APRA Act. Accordingly, the documents would be exempt from release under section 38 of the FOI Act.

ADVICE TO APPLICANT AS TO RIGHTS OF REVIEW

Application for review by Information Commissioner

- 11. Pursuant to section 54L of the FOI Act, you have the right to apply to the Information Commissioner for a review of the original decision or a review of a decision made on review.
- 12. Any application must be in writing and must give details of an address where notices may be sent and include a copy of the original decision or the decision made on internal review.
- 13. An application for review by the Information Commissioner should be sent:
 - Online: www.oaic.gov.au;
 - Post: GPO Box 2999, Canberra ACT 2601
 - Fax: +61 2 9284 9666

- Email: enquiries@oaic.gov.au
- In person: Level 3, 25 National Circuit
Forrest, ACT, or at
Level 8, Piccadilly Tower, 133 Castlereagh Street, Sydney, NSW

Application for review by Administrative Appeals Tribunal

14. If the decision on review by the Information Commissioner is not to grant access to all of the documents within your request, you would be entitled to seek review of that decision by the AAT.
15. The AAT is an independent review body with the power to make a fresh decision. Your application to the AAT should be accompanied by a filing fee of $777, unless you are granted legal aid or you come within an exempt category of persons. The AAT Registrar or Deputy Registrar may waive the fee on the ground that its payment would impose financial hardship on you. The fee may be refunded where you are successful. The AAT cannot award costs either in your favour or against you, although it may in some circumstances recommend payment by the Attorney-General of some or all of your costs. Further information is available from the AAT on 1300 366 700.

Complaints to the Information Commissioner

16. You may complain to the Commissioner concerning action taken by this agency in the exercise of powers or the performance of functions under the FOI Act. There is no fee for making a complaint. The Commissioner will conduct an independent investigation of your complaint.
17. You may complain to the Commissioner either orally or in writing, by any of the methods below.
 - Telephone: 1300 363 992
 - email: enquiries@oaic.gov.au
 - GPO Box 2999, Canberra ACT 2601
