Thanks s. 47F(1), was it just the one journalist? Just trying to ascertain a few of the facts as there is a bit of conflicting information.

s. 47F(1), I understand a journalist by the name of Chris is speaking to another pregnant refugee woman at the Ijuw settlement. s. 47F(1) Once I know more I will advise accordingly.

At this stage this is all the information I have.

Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

Can we ascertain these "BBC" journalist.

I have spoken to our PR person and he has told me a different version of the account you related to me on the phone.

I would suggest she remains at ihms and moves back tomorrow. These accusations are getting out of hand s. 47F(1), as discussed. Confirming your verbal approval for s. 47F(1) to be placed at RCP for a period of time due to two journalists approaching her about 10.30 this morning at her residence.

Released by DIBP under the Freedom of Information Act 1982

I have been advised that she is currently with IHMS staff at the RON Hospital Clinic and has indicated to them that she is feeling harassed and is too scared to return to the residence due to the journalists presence.

I have verbally advised IHMS staff of your approval and she will be transported here shortly.

I will provide details on the sequence of events at a later time.

Hi CA,
I'm sorry to hear that, I was not aware (although I have just seen the piece in the Australian).

We have advised s. 33(a)(iii) on the implications of publishing photos of asylum seekers.

Thanks s. 47F(1) I am not sure if you are aware that the journalists have caused some issues today with the refugee who returned to Nauru on Friday. She advised Connect she is unable to stay at her house as the journalists were 'camped outside'. She is currently in RPC1.

I also assume someone has thought about the issues that may arise in privacy and RSD processing if photos are released of children and/or transferees?

Cheers ca
