Dear Mr Chapman

RE: possible breaches of the Interactive Gambling Act (2001)

I write to you regarding serious concerns that I have in relation to new products being offered in Australia that allow live in-game internet betting without using a phone, in possible contravention of the Interactive Gambling Act (the Act).

I ask that you investigate these matters urgently.

It has come to my attention that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] have begun offering in Australia in-game betting over the internet by utilising synthesised voice software.

I believe this is in contravention of the letter and the intention of the Act. Details of the offering can be found here:

[REDACTED]

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience, and to arrange a meeting with your office in relation to this matter.

Yours sincerely

NICK XENOPHON
