Dear Mr Degan,

Invalid Application for Government Information

We received your application under the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (GIPA Act) on 19 February 2016.

Section 41(1) of the GIPA Act provides that a formal access application must meet the following criteria:

- (a) it must be in writing sent to or lodged at an office of the agency concerned,
- (b) it must clearly indicate that it is an access application made under this Act,
- (c) it must be accompanied by a fee of $30,
- (d) it must state a postal address in Australia as the address for correspondence in connection with the application,
- (e) it must include such information as is reasonably necessary to enable the government information applied for to be identified.

Your application is invalid because:

- you have not paid the application fee. Please organise payment of $30.
- you have not advised of an Australian postal address. Please confirm your postal address in writing.

Rights of review: If you do not agree that your application is invalid, you may seek a review of this decision. Your review rights are summarised in the enclosed brochure. You have 20 working days from the date of this letter to apply for an internal review, which will be conducted by this agency, or eight weeks to apply for an external review, which can be conducted by either the Information and Privacy Commission NSW (IPC) or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal (NCAT).

If you do not wish to seek a review, or amend your application in the manner advised, no further action will be taken in relation to your application, and you are entitled to a refund of the application fee if paid.
