Dear Ms Camilleri,

NOTICE OF DECISION

I refer to your request to Cancer Australia (the Agency) of 20 February 2016 seeking access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) to:

"I would like to request information about cancer trials being conducted in Australia. The information I'm looking for is about the type of trial drugs that are being used to treat breast, lung and skin cancer and their effects on patients. I would also like the findings and outcomes of these specific drug trials and how many trials were conducted for each.

The trial drugs that I would like to receive information on are:

Lung: CLDK378A2X01B and ARCTIC

Breast: ZMC-ARX788-101 and PIKNIC

Skin: A Phase 1b/2a and TVE" C

I am writing to advise you of my decision.

Decision

All reasonable steps have been taken to find the documents referred to in your request including a thorough and extensive search and consultation with the relevant policy and program areas.

I am satisfied that the documents referred to in your request do not exist.

As a consequence, I refuse access to the documents referred to in your request pursuant to section 24A of the FOI Act.

Review rights

If you are dissatisfied with my decision, you may apply for an internal review or Australian Information Commissioner (Information Commissioner) review of the decision.

Internal review

Under section 54 of the FOI Act, you may apply in writing to the Agency for an internal review of my decision. The internal review application must be made within 30 days of the date of this notice (or such further period as the Agency allows). Where possible please provide reasons why you consider review of the decision is necessary. The internal review will be carried out by another officer of this Agency within 30 days. An application for an internal review should be addressed to either of the following:

Email: FOI@canceraustralia.gov.au

OR

Mail: FOI Coordinator
Cancer Australia
