6. Social networking – restrictions relating to use

- 6.1 CrimTrac is not yet in a position to take advantage of social networking sites to support its consultation or community related initiatives. In many instances using social networking sites may be inappropriate given CrimTrac's law enforcement related functions.

If you identify yourself as a CrimTrac employee, secondee or contractor engaged by CrimTrac, on any personal blog and/or other personal posts, you are required to ensure that these communications contain a disclaimer that the opinions expressed are solely those of the author and do not represent the views of CrimTrac.

9. Recommending others

- 9.1 If you belong to a social networking site where you are able to write recommendations or referrals for friends and associates, and you do this as a representative of CrimTrac, this may give the appearance that CrimTrac endorses the individual being represented.
