Social media guidelines

It's important to remember that what you say and do on social media can affect you and the department. The social media guidelines have been created to ensure the safe use of these tools, protecting both you and the department.

It is every employee's responsibility to understand the guidelines. Watch the social media guidelines video.