

25 August 2016

Fraser Tweedale

via email: foi+request-2139-b4fd9cdd@righttoknow.org.au

Dear Mr Tweedale

Application for documents under the Commonwealth Freedom of Information Act 1982

I refer to your Freedom of Information request received by Australia Post on 18 August 2016 in which you sought access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 ("FOI Act"). You have sought the following from Australia Post:

"...[documents in respect to the registration of] 'AUSPOST' brand generic top-level domain (gTLD) with the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN), [specifically:]

1. Documents detailing the reasons for registering the "AUSPOST" gTLD.
2. Documents showing how the decision to register the "AUSPOST" gTLD was reached and who approved the decision.
3. Documents showing the upfront costs to Australian Postal Corporation of the application, including amounts paid to ICANN or other entities as part of the application or registration procedure.
4. Documents detailing the projected operational costs of managing the "AUSPOST" gTLD.
5. Documents containing the cost-benefit analyses pertaining to the registration and operation of the "AUSPOST" gTLD....."

Australia Post will respond to your request as soon as practicable and in any event within the statutory period for processing your request.

Please be aware that information released under the FOI Act may later be published in a disclosure log (subject to certain exceptions) within 10 days of a determination being made. You may wish to express a view on this issue and to identify personal or business information that in your view may be unreasonable to publish.

In accordance with the provisions of the FOI Act we will advise you of our decision within 30 days of receipt of your request.

Yours sincerely,

Anna Oliver
FOI Officer
Australia Post