Dear Rob,

Access to documents under the *Freedom of information Act 1982

I refer to your email dated 21 February 2017 seeking access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth) (the Act). You sought access to documents relating to:

1. Approval for requirement for a current medical for an ASIC application for pilot;
2. Committee notes for administration; and
3. Issues relating to the requirement from the MELT committee.

I am an officer authorised under section 23(1) of the Act to make decisions in relation to freedom of information requests.

I have not been able to locate any documents which fall within the terms of your request.

Application for internal review of decision

Section 54 of the Act gives you the right to apply for an internal review of my decision. An application for internal review of my decision must be made in writing within 30 days of receipt of this letter.

No particular form is required, but it is desirable to set out in the application the grounds on which you consider that the decision should be reviewed. An application for review should be addressed to Freedom of Information at the address below:

Freedom of Information
Legal Services Division
Civil Aviation Safety Authority
GPO Box 2005
Canberra ACT 2601

Review by the Australian Information Commissioner

Alternatively, under section 54L of the Act, you may apply to the Australian Information Commissioner to review my decision. An application for review by the Information

Commissioner must be made in writing within 60 days of the date of this letter, and be lodged in one of the following ways:

online: <http://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/requesting-a-review>
