INTERNAL REVIEW – FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

I refer to the decision made on 10 March 2017 by David Gobbitt, an officer of CASA pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the Act) (the decision). By an email of 20 March 2017, you sought internal review of that decision. I am the decision-maker in relation to your request for internal review.

Background

By email dated 21 February 2017 you sought access to the following documents under the Act:

1. Approval for requirement for a current medical for an ASIC application for pilot;
2. Committee notes for administration; and
3. Issues relating to the requirement from the MELT committee.

Mr Gobbitt's decision advised you he was not able to locate any documents within the terms of your request. I have conducted a further search of records and also have been unable to locate any documents within the terms of your request.

Review by the Australian Information Commissioner

Alternatively, under section 54L of the Act, you may apply to the Australian Information Commissioner to review my decision. An application for review by the Information Commissioner must be made in writing within 60 days of the date of this letter, and be lodged in one of the following ways:
