Dear Mr Diamond

Freedom of Information Request

I refer to your application dated 5 January 2017 in which you sought access to the following documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the Act):

I request access to any document that shows how much it cost the Australian Federal Police to use Gamma International's Finfisher in the years 2011, 2012, 2013 or 2014.

The Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police, being the principal officer of that Agency, has authorised me to make decisions on behalf of that agency in respect of the Act.

DECISION

Pursuant to section 25 of the Act, this agency neither confirms nor denies the existence of such a document in relation to your request. Assuming the existence of such a document, it would be an exempt document by virtue of under section 33 or subsection 37(1) of the Act.

REVIEW RIGHTS

If you are dissatisfied with this decision you can apply for internal or Information Commissioner (IC) Review. You do not have to apply for Internal Review before seeking IC review.

Internal Review by the AFP

Section 53A of the Act gives you the right to apply for an internal review in writing to this Department within 30 days of being notified of this decision.

No particular form is required but it would assist the decision-maker were you to set out in the application, the grounds on which you consider that the decision should be reviewed.

Applications for a review of the decision should be addressed to:

Freedom of Information Team
Australian Federal Police
GPO Box 401
Canberra ACT 2601

Internal Review by the Information Commissioner (IC)

Alternatively, Section 54L of the Act gives you the right to apply directly to the IC or following an internal review with this Agency. In making your application you need to provide:

- an address for notices to be sent (this can be an email address).
- A copy of this decision.

It would also help if you set out the reasons for review in your application.

Applications for a review of the decision should be addressed to:

Office of the Australian Information Commissioner
GPO Box 5218
Sydney NSW 2001

Right to Complain

Section 70 of the Act provides that a person may complain to the IC about action taken by this Department in relation to your application.

A complaint to the IC may be made in writing and identify the agency against which the complaint is made.

The IC may be contacted on 1300 363 992. There is no particular form required to make a complaint, but the complaint should set out the grounds on which you consider the action should be investigation.

Yours sincerely,

Adam Raszewski
Acting Team Leader
