Dear Mr Diamond,

nbn™ network FTTN Cabinet Locations

I am writing in relation to your request under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) sent to nbn's FOI email address on 17 February 2017.

Following various discussions via email, you amended your original FOI request on 2 March 2017, seeking the following:

(i) the location of FTTN cabinets connected to the following two telephone exchanges: Kingston Tasmania (Telstra exchange identifier KITN) and Margate Tasmania (Telstra exchange identifier MAGE); and

(ii) the number of FTTN cabinets connected to those two exchanges.

Search & Retrieval Time

I refer you to my previous response of 2 March 2017. Based upon your re-scoped application, I estimate that the search and retrieval time will now be limited to roughly five minutes, with the review by relevant staff and quality checking equating to roughly 10 minutes in total. However, the review time remains the same per my previous correspondence, noting again my earlier points regarding the legal analysis.

Revised Advance Deposit Request

Per section 29(1) of the FOI Act, I have determined that processing charges are payable in relation to this FOI request. nbn staff completed a preliminary assessment of the work involved in processing your FOI request and estimated the applicable charges as follows:

Search and retrieval time	0.17 hours @ $15 per hour	$2.50
Review & decision making time	13.5 hours @ $20 per hour	$270
Sub-total		272.50
Less first 5 hours decision making time(*)		(-$100)
TOTAL		$172.50

(*) In accordance with the Freedom of Information (Fees and Charges) Regulations, you are not charged for the first 5 hours of decision making time.

Please note that the estimated processing time – and relevant fees – may increase or decrease, depending on the nature of the work required. However, you will be advised if the fees increase beyond the estimate outlined above. As the total estimated processing charges exceed $100, a deposit of 25% ($43.13) is required.

Within 30 days of this notice, you are required to:

- agree to pay the charge and forward the deposit; or
- contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed (you should provide full reasons for your contention); or

- narrow the scope of your request (which may reduce the charge payable); or
- withdraw your request.

If you fail to notify nbn in a manner mentioned above within 30 days of this notice, your request will be taken to have been withdrawn. In addition, if you contend that the estimated charge has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed, you must notify nbn of your contention, providing reasons, and evidence where relevant, to support your submission. In deciding whether to reduce or not to impose a charge, the FOI decision-maker will consider all relevant factors, including:

- whether payment of the charge, or a part of it, would cause you financial hardship; and
- whether the giving of access is in the general public interest.

If you choose to contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed or should be reduced or not imposed, this will not constitute a request for internal review. You will be advised of your review rights under sections 53A and 54 of the FOI Act following consideration of your contentions.

Once nbn has completed the processing of your request, the assessment of the charge payable will be revised based on the actual amount of work involved in processing your request. If you are refused access to any of the documents that are relevant to your request, nbn may not impose an actual charge that is higher than the final estimated charge. This means that, if you are refused access to any document, the actual charge that will be payable will be lower than or equal to, but not more than, the final estimate of charges. It is only if you are granted access to all the documents that are relevant to your request that the actual charge imposed may be higher than the estimated charge. It is important to note that the payment of FOI processing fees does not guarantee access to documents or information.

If you agree to pay the estimated charge set out above, or the deposit for that charge, you should make arrangements to pay nbn using the following electronic banking details:

Bank name:	CBA
Name:	nbn co limited FOI
BSB:	062-438
Account no:	10240782
Reference:	FOI-AYCA-4812T9

When making a payment, please ensure you include the reference (FOI-AYCA-4812T9) noted above. If you provide a deposit and the processing of your request progresses to a point where a decision on access is made, a determination about the imposition of the actual charge will be made at that time. The balance of the actual charge will become a debt due to the Commonwealth, which nbn would be obliged to pursue, unless other arrangements are made or if nbn agrees to waive the fees.

Per section 31 of the FOI Act, the time limit for processing your request is suspended from the day you receive this notice, being today's date. Please also be advised that the charge notice day is not counted in calculating the processing time limit. For reference, 5 processing days have passed as of the writing of this letter. In addition, the processing time limit will resume:

- On the day upon which nbn receives your deposit.
- Alternatively, if you decide to contest the charge, the processing time limit will resume on the day upon which nbn notifies you of its decision not to impose a charge – if nbn so makes a decision.
- In the event that nbn decides to reduce the charge and deposit is required, the processing time limit will recommence on the day upon which you pay the reduced deposit.

More information about charges under the FOI Act is available in Fact Sheet 7 on the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner's (OAIC) website and in part 4 of the OAIC FOI Guidelines.

Disclosure Log

In accordance with the FOI Act, nbn is required to publish documents provided to FOI applicants within 10 working days after release. The information you seek may be published in full (as released to you) or with some additional redactions as per section 11C of the FOI Act. For further information and other details, please visit our Disclosure Log on nbn's website.

If you need to discuss your application, please feel free to contact the writer on (02) 8918 8596.

Yours faithfully,

David Mesman
