Dear CD

Decision on your Freedom of Information request - Full Access

I refer to your request dated 2 March 2017 and received by the Department of Human Services (the department) on the same day for access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) to the following documents:

'I write to you today under the Freedom of Information Act requesting any briefing materials prepared for the Minister's interview on Triple J's Hack program on February 21 2017.'

My decision

The department holds one document (totalling one page) that relates to your request.

I have decided to grant you full access to the document.

On 8 March 2017, the department acknowledged your request and advised you that we would not include personal details about our staff (such as their names). You did not contact the department again about this. Staff details and material falling outside of the scope of your request have therefore been deleted in accordance with section 22(1) of the FOI Act.

How we will send your document to you

The document will be sent to the email address you provided to receive notices under the FOI Act on 26 April 2017.

You can ask for a review of our decision

If you disagree with any part of my decision you can ask for a review. There are two ways you can do this. You can ask for an internal review from within the department or an Australian Information Commissioner review. You do not have to pay for reviews of decisions. See Attachment B for more information about how to arrange a review.

Further assistance

If you have any questions please email FOI.LEGAL.TEAM@humanservices.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Sally

INFORMATION ON RIGHTS OF REVIEW

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1982

Asking for a full explanation of a Freedom of Information decision

Before you ask for a formal review of a FOI decision, you can contact us to discuss your request. We will explain the decision to you. This gives you a chance to correct misunderstandings.

Asking for a formal review of an Freedom of Information decision

If you still believe a decision is incorrect, the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) gives you the right to apply for a review of the decision. Under sections 54 and 54L of the FOI Act, you can apply for a review of an FOI decision by:

1. an Internal Review Officer in the Department of Human Services (the department); and/or
2. the Australian Information Commissioner.

Note 1: There are no fees for these reviews.

Applying for an internal review by an Internal Review Officer

If you apply for internal review, a different decision maker to the departmental delegate who made the original decision will carry out the review. The Internal Review Officer will consider all aspects of the original decision and decide whether it should change. An application for internal review must be:

- made in writing
- made within 30 days of receiving this letter
- sent to the address at the top of the first page of this letter.

Note 2: You do not need to fill in a form. However, it is a good idea to set out any relevant submissions you would like the Internal Review Officer to further consider, and your reasons for disagreeing with the decision.

Applying for external review by the Australian Information Commissioner

If you do not agree with the original decision or the internal review decision, you can ask the Australian Information Commissioner to review the decision.

If you do not receive a decision from an Internal Review Officer in the department within 30 days of applying, you can ask the Australian Information Commissioner for a review of the original FOI decision.

You will have 60 days to apply in writing for a review by the Australian Information Commissioner.

You can lodge your application:

Online: www.oaic.gov.au
Post: Australian Information Commissioner
GPO Box 5218
SYDNEY NSW 2001
Email: enquiries@oaic.gov.au

Note 3: The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner generally prefers FOI applicants to seek internal review before applying for external review by the Australian Information Commissioner.

Important:

- If you are applying online, the application form the 'Merits Review Form' is available at www.oaic.gov.au.
- If you have one, you should include with your application a copy of the Department of Human Services' decision on your FOI request
- Include your contact details
- Set out your reasons for objecting to the department's decision.
