Dear UD

FOI REQUEST – REFERENCE NUMBER 2017-006

I refer to your request for access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) in your email of 15 March 2017. Specifically, you have sought access to the following documents:

- 1) The letter sent by Alan Sunderland to Senator Malcolm Roberts as referenced in the tweet from Mr Sunderland [that read:

Alan Sunderland

@asunderland

@SenatorMRoberts @Lateline You know perfectly well why I reject that, because it was all carefully spelled out in the letter I sent you]

- 2) The originating items of correspondence/complaints from Senator Roberts to which Mr Sunderland was replying.”

I confirm that the 30-day statutory period for processing your request commenced from the day after your application was received, being 16 March 2017.

Subject to any suspension of the processing period or extension of the time for deciding this application, the ABC is required to make a determination in relation to this application by 14 April 2017. Please note that processing charges may be imposed and that consultation with third parties may be required. If it is necessary to seek agreement to pay charges or to consult with third parties, additional processing time is provided under the FOI Act. You will be advised of any charges as well as any need to consult third parties in relation to your request.

Please note that the ABC is required by the FOI Act to publish decisions and accessed information on its website within 10 working days after the release of the documents to the FOI applicant.

You should also be aware that by making an FOI request, you may be providing personal information to the ABC. The ABC will manage any such information in accordance with the ABC's Privacy Policy. Details of that policy are available on the ABC's website: <http://about.abc.net.au/abc-privacy-policy/>. Please note that personal information (such as your name) may be disclosed in the course of processing this request, for instance for the purposes of consultation or internal reporting.

We will consider your request and provide you with a decision as soon as practicable.

Yours sincerely
