Thanks s47F

I have the option to see everything – however our executive have only requested participation at this point. I will get a full run down next week.

We are at 50% participation half way through day 2.

UNCLASSIFIED

Hi s47F,

Are you able to see the classification make up of who has voted?

I only ask as I know of one agency where they could see and they noted that there was a low participation of EL2s in particular, so there was contact made encouraging this cohort, as the leadership group, to model to their staff and vote. s47F
