Dear JS

Acknowledgment of request for access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth)

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) acknowledges receipt of your email of 28 April 2017 requesting, under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth), to the following:

'In Oct 2016 the International Competition Network (ICN) and the World Bank Group announced the launch of the 2016 – 2017 Competition Advocacy Contest with submissions to be lodged by 31 Jan 2017. In Mar 2017 the ACCC announced that it had won the award for its advocacy work in promoting pro-competition measures when governments are privatising public assets.'

I seek administrative access to a copy of the ACCC submissions that led to the award.'

Timeframe for processing your request

The ACCC has 30 days to process your request, beginning 28 April 2017. This timeframe may be extended by the ACCC where:

- (a) charges are applied, and/or
- (b) consultation with third parties is necessary.

Charges

If the ACCC decides that you should pay a charge to process your request, we will notify you of the likely cost of processing your request and your options if you disagree. The statutory timeframe is placed on hold from when this is sent to you and resumes at a later time.

We will notify you of any charges in relation to your request as soon as practicable.

Consultation with third parties

The ACCC may be required to consult with businesses or individuals (third parties) where you have sought information about those third parties. The Act grants an extra 30 days processing time for the ACCC to undertake this consultation. You will be advised if we extend the timeframe to allow third party consultation.

Decision

A decision maker will assess the documents (if any) to decide if we can release them, or if they are exempt from release. We will send you the decision and notify you of your review rights.

We will only release documents once any applicable processing charge is paid.

If we cannot locate any documents that are covered by the scope of your request, we will advise you of this and your review rights.

Publication of documents released under FOI

Material released under FOI may be published on our website unless we consider it unreasonable to do so.

If you have any questions regarding the above, please contact me on (02) 6243 1244.

Yours sincerely
