Dear Mr Monceaux

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

I refer to your request of 25 June 2017, under which you sought access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) to:

"a digital copy of any existing drafts of a 2017 report reviewing great white shark populations and/or the species conservation status.

The document in question was described in the recent Australian newspaper article "Great white shark debate: protection hinges on CSIRO population finding" as "forthcoming".

Decision maker

I am an authorised decision maker under section 23 of the FOI Act. This letter sets out my decision and reasons for the decision in relation to your request.

Decision

Despite an extensive search, CSIRO has been unable to identify any documents relevant to your request. I must therefore refuse access, pursuant to section 24A of the FOI Act on the basis that the document[s] sought do not exist or cannot be found.

Searches conducted

The analysis of the data collected for the proposed report, is still being finalised. The drafting of the report has not commenced. Thus, currently, there are no documents in existence that fall within the scope of your request.

To assist, you could re-lodge your request, towards the end of the year.

Rights of Review

In accordance with section 26(1)(c) of the FOI Act, a statement setting out your rights of review under the Act is at Attachment A. Since my decision is that no documents exist, an application for review would be limited to a situation where you consider that I have not identified all the documents in the CSIRO's possession that are relevant to your request.

Yours sincerely

Beth Maloney
Legal Counsel
CSIRO
