Dear Mr Hirsch

Freedom of Information Request - Section 24AB(2) Notice

I refer to your application dated 4 July 2017 under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the Act) seeking access to:

Please provide documents and correspondence between the AFP and the Government of Indonesia (and its agencies) regarding Indonesian minors who were jailed in adult prisons in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and Perth between 2008 and 2012 for crewing asylum seeker boats.

Notification

1. Notice is hereby given under section 24AB(2) of the Act of an intention to refuse to grant access to the documents sought, pursuant to section 24AA of that Act. For the reasons outlined below, the Australian Federal Police ("the AFP") is satisfied that the work involved in processing that request would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the AFP from its other operations.
2. I am the agency officer with whom you may consult with a view to making the request in such a form that would remove the ground for refusal. I may be contacted on (02) 6131 6131.
3. The following information is provided to assist you in making a request in such a form that the grounds for the section 24AA refusal is removed.

Scope of the Request

4. Preliminary enquiries concerning your request for documents have been made which indicate that extensive searches would need to take place in order to determine which matters and documents may fall within the scope of your request.
5. The AFP maintains that to process the request in its current form would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the AFP from its other operations. Following is a forecast of the probable resource demands posed by your request.

6. Initial searches conducted by the AFP Crime Operations portfolio have indicated that there are more than 700 people smuggling matters between the years 2008 to 2012. Without further interrogation of each matter, it is presently unknown how many of these matters relate to your request.
7. Assuming a review time of 15 minutes per matter, it is estimated that it would take an AFP Crime Operations member a minimum of 4 weeks to review all of the people smuggling matters between 2008-2012 in order to ascertain whether they meet the criteria of your request (i.e. whether an Indonesian minor was involved, and whether they were imprisoned in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, or Perth). The estimated time period of more than four weeks is in addition to the time it would subsequently take to interrogate each relevant matter to locate any documents within the scope of your request, as well the AFP FOI staff time required to assess the documents, make a decision, copy the documents and notify you of the decision.
8. To process your request in its current form would also be a substantial burden on the Freedom of Information Team which will impact severely on other requests for information to the detriment of a number of other applicants. This is a burden in terms of resources and is made relevant to a section 24AA(1) decision by virtue of sections 24AA(2)(a), (b), (c) and (d).

Revising the scope of your request

9. You could consider narrowing your request within a reasonable form which would remove the ground for the section 24AB refusal. As a suggestion, you may wish to consider the following options:
 - i. minimising the timeframe of the documents; and/or
 - ii. outlining specific matters for which you are interested in.
10. Under sub-section 24AB(6) of the Act, you are required within the 14 day period to do one of the following:
 - withdraw the request;
 - make a revised request; or
 - indicate that you do not wish to revise the request.
11. As noted above, I would of course be available to discuss the matter. Should you not avail yourself of this opportunity to consult within 14 days of the date of this letter, notice will be given of a decision to refuse access on the basis stated above.
12. An extract of sections 24AA and AB of the Act is attached for your information.

Yours sincerely,

Jacqueline Ellery
Team Leader

24AA When does a practical refusal reason exist?

- (1) For the purposes of section 24, a practical refusal reason exists in relation to a request for a document if either (or both) of the following applies:
 - (a) the work involved in processing the request:
 - (i) in the case of an agency—would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the agency from its other operations; or
 - (ii) in the case of a Minister—would substantially and unreasonably interfere with the performance of the Minister's functions;
 - (b) the request does not satisfy the requirement in paragraph 15(2)(b) (identification of documents).
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), but without limiting the matters to which the agency or Minister may have regard, in deciding whether a practical refusal reason exists, the agency or Minister must have regard to the resources that would have to be used for the following:
 - (a) identifying, locating or collating the documents within the filing system of the agency, or the office of the Minister;
 - (b) deciding whether to grant, refuse or defer access to a document to which the request relates, or to grant access to an edited copy of such a document, including resources that would have to be used for:
 - (i) examining the document; or
 - (ii) consulting with any person or body in relation to the request;
 - (c) making a copy, or an edited copy, of the document;
 - (d) notifying any interim or final decision on the request.
- (3) In deciding whether a practical refusal reason exists, an agency or Minister must not have regard to:
 - (a) any reasons that the applicant gives for requesting access; or
 - (b) the agency's or Minister's belief as to what the applicant's reasons are for requesting access; or
 - (c) any maximum amount, specified in the regulations, payable as a charge for processing a request of that kind.

24AB What is a request consultation process?

Scope

- (1) This section sets out what is a request consultation process for the purposes of section 24.

Requirement to notify

- (2) The agency or Minister must give the applicant a written notice stating the following:
 - (a) an intention to refuse access to a document in accordance with a request;
 - (b) the practical refusal reason;
 - (c) the name of an officer of the agency or member of staff of the Minister (the contact person) with whom the applicant may consult during a period;
 - (d) details of how the applicant may contact the contact person;
 - (e) that the period (the consultation period) during which the applicant may consult with the contact person is 14 days after the day the applicant is given the notice.

Assistance to revise request

- (3) If the applicant contacts the contact person during the consultation period in accordance with the notice, the agency or Minister must take reasonable steps to assist the applicant to revise the request so that the practical refusal reason no longer exists.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), reasonable steps includes the following:
 - (a) giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity to consult with the contact person;
 - (b) providing the applicant with any information that would assist the applicant to revise the request.

Extension of consultation period

- (5) The contact person may, with the applicant's agreement, extend the consultation period by written notice to the applicant.

Outcome of request consultation process

- (6) The applicant must, before the end of the consultation period, do one of the following, by written notice to the agency or Minister:
 - (a) withdraw the request;
 - (b) make a revised request;
 - (c) indicate that the applicant does not wish to revise the request.
- (7) The request is taken to have been withdrawn under subsection (6) at the end of the consultation period if:
 - (a) the applicant does not consult the contact person during the consultation period in accordance with the notice; or
 - (b) the applicant does not do one of the things mentioned in subsection (6) before the end of the consultation period.

Consultation period to be disregarded in calculating processing period

- (8) The period starting on the day an applicant is given a notice under subsection (2) and ending on the day the applicant does one of the things mentioned in paragraph (6)(b) or (c) is to be disregarded in working out the 30 day period mentioned in paragraph 15(5)(b).

Note: Paragraph 15(5)(b) requires that an agency or Minister take all reasonable steps to notify an applicant of a decision on the applicant's request within 30 days after the request is made.

No more than one request consultation process required

- (9) To avoid doubt, this section only obliges the agency or Minister to undertake a request consultation process once for any particular request.
