Dear Mr Bull

This letter refers to your request received on 17 September 2013 seeking access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) to the following documents:

I request the following briefing to the Minister:

TB2013/02373 Sustainability issues associated with Irregular Maritime Arrival releases.

I am writing to advise you of my decision that you are liable to pay a charge in respect of the processing of your request. I am an officer authorised under s.23(1) of the FOI Act to make decisions in relation to FOI requests.

In accordance with s.29 of the FOI Act and the Freedom of Information Charges Regulations 1982, my preliminary assessment of the charge you are liable to pay is $14.50.

Your right to contend the charge

Under the FOI Act, you have the right to contend that the charge:

- has been wrongly assessed; or
- should be reduced; or
- should not be imposed.

In deciding whether a charge should be reduced or not imposed, the decision maker in our agency must take into account:

- whether payment of the charge, or part of it, would cause you financial hardship
- whether giving access to the documents is in the general public interest or in the interest of a substantial section of the public
- any other relevant matter.

As the charge is less than $100, the full amount will be sought if the charge is imposed.

The time you have to respond and what you need to do

You have 30 days to respond in writing to this notice. We therefore expect a response from you by 27 September 2013.

By that date, you must do one of the following things in writing:

- agree to pay the charge (this will mean that you will not be entitled to access the requested documents until the full charge is paid);
- contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed and explain your reasons; or
- withdraw your request.

If you do not provide the Department with a written response by 27 September 2013 your request will be taken to have been withdrawn.

The period for processing your request is suspended from the day that you receive this notice and resumes on either the day you pay the charge (in full or the required deposit) or the day on which this agency makes a decision not to impose a charge.

How to pay the deposit

The deposit can be paid by cheque, money order or credit card.

Cheques and money orders should be made payable to "Collector of Public Monies DIAC" and sent to:
