Dear MJ

NOTICE OF PRELIMINARY ASSESSMENT OF CHARGES

1. I refer to your email, dated 18 September 2013, in which you requested access, under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act), to:

“...a copy of your incoming government brief.”

Liability to pay charges

2. In accordance with section 29 of the FOI Act, I decided that you are liable to pay a charge for processing your request and for giving access to any documents that may be released to you.

3. The decision that you are liable to pay a charge does not mean that you are required to pay now. You will only have to pay if, after consideration of your response to this letter, the decision is made to impose a charge. We will inform you when such a decision has been made and will let you know about your rights to seek review of the decision. You may, at any stage before a charge is imposed, withdraw your request. You would then not be legally required to pay the charge.

Preliminary assessment of charges schedule

4. Your request was referred to the relevant area(s) in Defence for an estimate to be made of the work that would be involved in processing it. An estimate was also obtained of the number of pages of documents that, if disclosed, would attract a copying charge. The purpose of obtaining these estimates is to allow a preliminary assessment to be made of the charge that, if imposed, your request would attract. The preliminary assessment of the charge is as follows:

Search and retrieval time:	15 minutes @ $15 per hour	$ 3.75
Decision-making time:	121 hours & 30 minutes @ $20 per hour	$ 2,430.00
Copying of documents:	230 pages @ 10 cents per page	$ 23.00
GST (Exempt):		Nil
Sub total:		$ 2,456.75
Less	5 hours of free decision making time	$ 100.00
Total		$ 2,356.75
Deposit required		$ 589.15

5. (The rates of charges are set by the Freedom of Information Charges Regulations.)

Basis on which charges are estimated

6. The basis of the estimates on which this preliminary assessment was made is as follows:

Search and retrieval time: Using the electronic records management system in Defence it took an officer approximately 15 minutes to locate the requested document.

Decision-making time:

- a. 91 hours and 30 minutes to examine approximately 230 pages of documents that fall within the terms of your request;
- b. 10 hours for consulting with bodies outside Defence in the decision-making process;
- c. 10 hours to make a copy of the document with exempt or irrelevant matter deleted; and
- d. 10 hours in preparing notices of decision.

This estimate has been adjusted to take into account the free decision-making time allowed under the FOI charges regulations.

Copying of documents: Photocopying of documents that are disclosed is charged at 10 cents per A4 page. [Please note that, although an estimate has been made of the cost of providing photocopies of documents in response to your request, no decision to release any document has been made. This letter should not be taken to mean that your request for access to documents will be granted.]

Response to this notice

7. You now have the opportunity to decide whether or not you wish to proceed with your request. Section 29 of the FOI Act requires that, within 30 days of receipt of this letter, you must let the Department know whether you wish to:

- a. withdraw your request (you will not be required to pay any charges); or

- b. agree to pay, in anticipation of its imposition, the charges as set out above in the preliminary assessment of charges schedule; or
  - c. contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed (you should give your full reasons for doing so); or
  - d. reduce the scope of your request. Defence will offer you one opportunity to consult our office to reduce the scope of your request and revise the above preliminary assessment of charges. Upon receipt of the revised preliminary assessment of charges you will be required to choose from options 6 a; b; or c above).
8. If you need more time to respond, please contact this office.
9. If you do not respond to this letter within 30 days of receiving it (or by a later deadline if we give you an extension), we will take it that you have withdrawn your request. The 30-day time limit for processing your request is suspended from the day that you receive this letter and resumes either:
- a. on the day you agree to pay the charge (if no deposit is required);
  - b. the day Defence receives a correctly completed 'Deposit Authorisation Form'; or
  - c. the day on which Defence makes a decision not to impose a charge.

Right to challenge assessment of charges

10. You may wish to contend that the charge for your request has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed, as indicated above. The decision maker, when deciding whether or not to reduce or impose a charge, will consider all relevant reasons, including the following reasons:

- a. whether payment of the charge, or part of it, would cause you financial hardship; and
- b. whether the giving of access to the documents requested is in the general public interest or in the interest of a substantial section of the public.

Adjustment of charges after request processed

11. After processing your request has been completed, the charge payable may be adjusted to reflect the actual processing time and the final number of pages of documents, if any, that are disclosed. However, the amount payable can only be more than the preliminary assessment if the decision is to release all of the documents requested in full.

Deposit required

12. If you wish to proceed with your request, and agree to pay the charge, a deposit is required as indicated above in the preliminary assessment of charges schedule. The deposit is not refundable except in some limited circumstances (for example, if Defence fails to make a decision on your request within the statutory time limit), or may be refundable in part if the final charge is less than the deposit paid.

13. Please complete the authorisation form at Enclosure 1 and return it to the FOI Directorate. This form is an agreement to pay charges and enables the FOI Directorate to continue processing your request without delay. Upon receipt of the form an invoice will be generated, which may take up to 3 business days. Details about payment of the invoice are on the form.

FOI Disclosure log

14. In accordance with the requirements of section 11C of the FOI Act, Defence is required to publish, on its website, information released under the FOI Act within 10 working days of the applicant being given access to documents. Defence will also publish the decision notice, with personal and business information deleted. The information published does not include personal information or the business, commercial, financial or professional affairs of any person if publication of that information would be unreasonable. Other information not published also includes that which the Australian Information Commissioner determines is unreasonable to publish.

Further information

15. The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner has compiled a Fact Sheet on FOI charges, which is available at:

http://www.oaic.gov.au/publications/fact\_sheets/FOI\_fact\_sheet7\_charges.pdf.

16. Should you have any queries about this matter please contact me directly on (07) 3332 6359. Alternatively, the FOI team can also be contacted on the details at the top of this letter.

Yours sincerely

Theresa Stinson
