Subject to the provisions of these Rules, the amount of the Member's Benefit shall be paid or commence to be paid to a Non-Employer Sponsored Member who retires from the workforce and attains age 55, or such other age prescribed in the Act as being the preservation age for that Member. The Member's Benefit shall also be paid or commence to be paid to a Non-Employer Sponsored Member on attaining age 65 if he continues to be Employed or Self-Employed (whichever is applicable) after that age but the number of hours worked are insufficient for the Member to be considered to be Employed or Self-Employed on a Part-Time Basis (whichever is applicable). 40.3 Continuation of Employment on a Part-Time Basis after Age 65

In the event that the Member is and continues to be Employed or Self-Employed on a Part-Time Basis after attaining age 65, the Member's Benefit shall be paid or commence to be paid to the Member when he requests payment or upon his attaining age 70 or if the number of hours that he works reduces below the level required to be Employed or Self-Employed on a Part-Time Basis, whichever occurs first.

40.6 Payment of Benefit by Pension

The benefit payable under this Rule 40 may, in the discretion of the Trustee, be paid by way of a pension in accordance with Rule 49. However, from the date on which the Fund becomes a regulated superannuation fund under the Act, a benefit that becomes payable after that date shall (subject to any permitted commutations by Members and beneficiaries to lump sums) be paid by way of a pension that is an old-age pension within the meaning of Section 51(xxiii) of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act, 1900 if the Trustee is not, at the time the benefit becomes payable, a Constitutional Corporation. Such old-age pension shall commence to be paid on the later of the Member attaining age 60 and retiring from the workforce.

40.7 Payment of Unclaimed Money to the Commissioner

If a benefit (other than a pension) has become payable under this Rule 40 and the Trustee is unable to pay the benefit because the Trustee, after making reasonable efforts to trace the person to whom the benefit is payable, is unable to do so, the Trustee shall treat the benefit as unclaimed money and pay it to the Commissioner in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

41. BENEFIT PAYABLE ON DEATH

41.1 Benefit Payable on Death

If a Member dies before payment or commencement of payment of a benefit under Rule 40, the amount of the Member's Benefit shall be held by the Trustee on trust for the benefit of such one or more of the Member's Dependants, to be paid in a lump sum in such shares and proportions as the Trustee, in its absolute discretion, determines. The Trustee shall take account of any nomination of beneficiaries made by the Member, but shall not be bound by it.

If the Member has not attained age 55 (or such other age prescribed in the Act as being the preservation age for that Member) or, having attained age 55, has not retired from the workforce, the Trustee shall pay or commence to pay the Member only that part of the Member's Benefit which is not a Preserved Benefit.

44. PAYMENT OF PRESERVED BENEFIT

If any part of the benefit payable under Rule 43 is a Preserved Benefit and if the Member has not attained age 55 (or such other age prescribed in the Act as being the preservation age for that Member) or, having attained age 55, has not retired from the workforce, the Trustee shall:

- (a) retain the Member's Preserved Benefit in the Fund (to which earnings of the Fund shall be proportionately credited) and either pay such benefit to the Member after he retires from the workforce and attains age 55, or such other age prescribed in the Act as being the preservation age for that Member, and requests that the benefit be paid to him provided that the Trustee shall pay or commence to pay the Preserved Benefit no later than the attainment by the Member of the age of 65 years or in such other circumstances as are permitted under the Act, or shall pay such benefit in accordance with Rules 41 or 42 in the event of the Member's earlier death or Permanent Disablement or shall pay such benefit to the Member if the Trustee is satisfied that he is leaving Australia to reside permanently overseas; or

- (c) in its discretion, pay the Preserved Benefit to the Member by a non-commutable pension or annuity for the life of the Member; or
- (d) if the Member so requests, apply the Preserved Benefit to purchase a deferred annuity to be held by the Trustee until the Member attains age 55, or such other age prescribed in the Act as being the preservation age for that Member, and
 - (i) under which the first annuity payment is not to be made until on or after the Member attains age 55, or such other age prescribed in the Act as being the preservation age for that Member, provided that the annuity instalments shall commence to be paid no later than the attainment by the Member of the age of 65 years or in such other circumstances as are permitted by the Act, and
 - (ii) which cannot be surrendered or assigned (except to make a payment in accordance with Rule 34) until the Member attains age 55, or such other age prescribed in the Act as being the preservation age for that Member, and
 - (iii) which cannot be mortgaged or encumbered in any manner whatsoever, provided that if the amount of the Member's Preserved Benefit does not exceed $500 (or such other amount that is prescribed under the Act), it shall be paid to the Member on termination of his employment and paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this Rule 44 shall not apply to such benefit.
