17.2 Ceasing to Act as Trustee

A Trustee, or a director of a corporate Trustee where the director is appointed pursuant to Rule 17.5 or 17.10, shall cease to be a Trustee or a director of a corporate Trustee if:

- (a) the Trustee or director resigns his office; or

- (b) he dies; or

Where, under this Rule or Rules 17.6, 17.8 or 17.10, a director of a corporate Trustee is required to cease to be a director, the directors of the Trustee shall use their best endeavours to terminate that person's directorship.

If the Trustee is a company it shall cease to be the Trustee if a resolution is passed or a petition is presented for its winding up or liquidation or a receiver of its assets is appointed.

17.3 Employers or Members may Remove a Trustee or Trustees

Unless there is an equal number of Employer Representatives and Member Representatives appointed pursuant to Rule 17.5, a majority of the Participating Employers or, if there are no Participating Employers, a majority of the Members may, by resolution or in writing, remove any Trustee from office and may, by resolution or in writing, appoint any replacement Trustee or additional Trustee.

17.4 Trustee Company Placed into Receivership

If a company is, at the time of being placed in receivership or liquidation, the sole Trustee of the Fund, the receiver or liquidator shall have the power by deed to appoint a replacement Trustee or Trustees. If the receiver or liquidator fails to appoint a replacement Trustee within 60 days after a vacancy occurs, a majority of the Participating Employers or a majority of the Members shall have the power by deed to appoint a replacement Trustee.

17.5 Member Representatives and Employer Representatives

If the Act so requires, or if the Participating Employer decides or, if there is more than one Participating Employer, a majority of the Participating Employers decide at any time that there should be Trustees, or directors of the Trustee, representing the Members (in which case they shall advise the existing Trustees in writing), there shall be, in addition to any independent Trustee appointed pursuant to Rule 17.10, a total number of Trustees, or directors of a corporate Trustee, of 4, or another even number determined by the Participating Employer or Employers, one-half of whom shall be nominated by the Participating Employer or Employers (the "Employer Representatives") and one-half of whom shall be elected by the Members ("Member Representatives"). The Member Representatives shall be elected either by means of a poll conducted in accordance with Rule 17.6(e) or, in the discretion of the Trustee, at a meeting called in accordance with Rule 17.6(a) in respect of the appointment and removal of Member Trustees. The Employer and Member Representatives shall be

6. What is your tax file number?

The trustee of a superannuation fund is required to tell you the following things before you provide it with your tax file number. Your tax file number is confidential, and you should know the following things before you decide to provide it:

- The trustee can collect your tax file number under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and under the Superannuation Contributions Tax (Assessment and Collection) Act, 1997.
- If you do provide your tax file number to the trustee, it will only be used for legal purposes. This includes finding or identifying your superannuation benefits where other information is insufficient, calculating tax on deductible contributions made on your behalf and on any eligible termination payment you may be entitled to, and providing information to the Commissioner of Taxation. These purposes may change in the future.
- It is not an offence if you choose not to quote your tax file number. But, if you don't tell the trustee your tax file number, either now or later, you may pay more tax on your superannuation than you have to (you may reclaim the extra tax through the taxation assessment process). It may also be more difficult to find your benefits in the future, to pay you any superannuation benefits you are entitled to, or to amalgamate or find any other benefits for you. These consequences may change in the future.

- If you provide your tax file number to the trustee, it may be provided to the trustee of any other superannuation fund or to a retirement savings account provider to which your benefits are transferred in the future. The trustee will not pass your tax file number to any other fund or provider if you inform it, in writing, that you don't want it to pass it on. The trustee will also give it to the Commissioner of Taxation. Otherwise, the trustee will treat it as confidential.
