INFORMATION ON RIGHTS OF REVIEW

1. ACCC Internal Review

Under s.54 of the FOI Act, you can apply for an internal review of my decision by writing to the ACCC within 30 days of receipt of this letter indicating that you seek an internal review of this decision.

If you make an application for review, another officer of the ACCC will review and make another decision in regards to these documents.

There is no charge payable for requesting an internal review. No particular form is required to apply for review. You will need to set why the decision should be changed.

Please send any correspondence to:

FOI Coordinator

Australian Competition & Consumer Commission

GPO Box 3131

Canberra ACT 2601

If you make an application for internal review and we do not make a decision within 30 days or such further period as the IC allows, the original decision is considered affirmed. In such circumstances, you can seek review of our deemed decision by the IC.

2. Review by the Information Commissioner

You may ask for a review of a decision by the Australian Information Commissioner (IC). You do not have to go through our internal review process first for this process. If you do choose to seek an internal review, you can still seek IC review for the internal review decision if we refuse access to the documents.

You must apply in writing and you can lodge your application in one of the following ways:

Online: www.oaic.gov.au

Post: GPO Box 5218, Sydney NSW 2001

Fax: +61 2 9284 9666

Email: enquiries@oaic.gov.au

If you disagree with the Information Commissioner's review decision, you can appeal to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT).

The Tribunal is a completely independent review body with the power to make a fresh decision. A filing fee of $861.00 (as at 1 July 2014) should accompany your application, unless you are granted legal aid or you come within an exempt category of persons (check with the Tribunal registry in your State). The Registrar or Deputy Registrar may waive the fee on the ground that its payment would impose financial hardship on you. The fee may be refunded if you are successful.

3. Complaint to the Information Commissioner

You may request the Information Commissioner to investigate action taken by the ACCC in relation to this Freedom of Information request. There is no fee for making a complaint. The Information Commissioner will consider your complaint and, if appropriate, conduct an investigation into it. Any investigation will be completely independent.

You must lodge your complaint in writing and do so in one of the following ways:

Online: www.oaic.gov.au

Post: GPO Box 5218, Sydney NSW 2001

Fax: +61 2 9284 9666
