Elizabeth,

The determination relative to June 2006 is not available on the Remuneration Tribunal's website. Details of the travel claim are attached. To assist with an urgent enquiry the following information may be of use:

- Mr Abbott's claim for the June 2006 travel to Albury was claimed as official business as a Minister;
- Finance has become aware that the travel coincided with the wedding of a parliamentary colleague - Ms Sophie Mirabella;
- We do not have access to the paperwork today for this claim as it is held in archive;
- The files are general sentenced (destroyed) after seven years however I have been advised that they are likely to be held in the ████ facility by ██████████
- On the basis of the information available it is not possible to determine whether the travel was made in accordance with the relevant determination.

Greg ▮▮▮▮▮,

The attached sheet is the information provided to Mr Abbott on Saturday. The first amount, for the Mirabella wedding, is clear however the amount repaid for the Slipper wedding may be a proportion of costs rather than a combination of individual costs - we will need to check. Mr Abbott did not advise us that he was repaying anything from the Slipper wedding. PMC advised on Saturday that Mr Abbott undertook official functions on that trip that weren't related to the wedding so there was no expectation of any reimbursement for that expenditure.

Hi Greg

Are you aware of Mr Abbott's office made any contact with anyone else in M&PS over the weekend about this issue, as you can see payments have been received however I have not provided any figures, so am not sure what they were made up of (I imagine flights, TA, car hire?).

Thanks
