Dear Mr Richards

Freedom of Information request

I refer to your application dated 9 July 2018 under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the Act) seeking the following:

“Documents showing the annual budget for Taskforce Nemesis and documents showing the actual spend per year since the Taskforce begin in Canberra.”

Attached at Annexure A to this letter is my decision and statement of reasons for that decision.

Yours sincerely,

Helen Drew
Coordinator
Freedom of Information Team
Chief Counsel Portfolio

STATEMENT OF REASONS RELATING TO AN FOI REQUEST BY PHIL RICHARDS

I, Helen Drew, Coordinator, Freedom of Information Team, am an officer authorised under section 23 of the Act to make decisions in relation to the Australian Federal Police.

What follows is my decision and reasons for the decision in relation to your application.

BACKGROUND

On 20 July 2018, this office received your application in which you requested:

“Documents showing the annual budget for Taskforce Nemesis and documents showing the actual spend per year since the Taskforce began in Canberra.”

On 23 August 2018, you reduced the scope to “only the annual budget information”.

On 26 July 2018 you agreed to an extension of time pursuant to section 15AA of the Act.

SEARCHES

In relation to this application, a search was undertaken by ACT Policing for the information relevant to the scope of the request.

DECISION

As a result of the searches undertaken it was identified that the information originated from the ACT Government. Following consultation with the relevant authority, the AFP has been advised that the annual budget for Taskforce Nemesis is publicly available at the following links:

WAIVER OF CHARGES

Given that the request was simple to process, on this occasion, I am waiving any further fees and charges which are normally associated with the processing of applications under the Act.

EVIDENCE/MATERIAL ON WHICH MY FINDINGS WERE BASED

In reaching my decision, I have relied on the following documentary evidence:

- ❖ the scope of your application;
- ❖ the contents of the documents listed in the attached schedule;

- ❖ advice from AFP officers with responsibility for matters relating to the documents to which you sought access;
- ❖ consultation with State Government agency;
- ❖ Freedom of Information Act 1982; and
- ❖ Guidelines issued by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner.

** YOU SHOULD READ THIS GENERAL ADVICE IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE LEGISLATIVE REQUIREMENTS OF THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1982.

REVIEW AND COMPLAINT RIGHTS

If you are dissatisfied with a Freedom of Information decision made by the Australian Federal Police, you can apply for an internal or Information Commissioner (IC) Review. You do not have to apply for Internal Review before seeking an IC review.

You do not need to seek a review by either the AFP or the IC should you wish to complain about the AFP's actions in processing your request.

REVIEW RIGHTS under Part VI of the Act

Internal Review by the AFP

Section 53A of the Act gives you the right to apply for an internal review in writing to the Australian Federal Police (AFP) within 30 days of being notified of a decision. No particular form is required. It would assist the independent AFP decision-maker responsible for the internal review if you set out in the application, the grounds on which you consider that the decision should be reviewed.

Section 54B of the Act provides that the internal review submission must be made within 30 days. Applications for a review of the decision should be addressed to:

Freedom of Information
Australian Federal Police
GPO Box 401
Canberra ACT 2601

REVIEW RIGHTS under Part VII of the Act Review by the Information Commissioner (IC)

Alternatively, Section 54L of the Act gives you the right to apply directly to the IC or following an internal review by the AFP. In making your application you will need to provide an address for notices to be sent (this can be an email address) and a copy of the AFP decision. It would also help if you set out the reasons for review in your application.

Section 54S of the Act provides for the timeframes for an IC review submission. For an access refusal decision covered by subsection 54L(2), the application must be made within 60 days. For an access grant decision covered by subsection 54M(2), the application must be made within 30 days.

Applications for a review of the decision should be addressed to:

Office of the Australian Information Commissioner
GPO Box 5128
Sydney NSW 2001

Further, the OAIC encourages parties to an IC review to resolve their dispute informally, and encourages agencies to consider possible compromises or alternative solutions to the dispute in this matter. The AFP would be pleased to assist you in this regard.

Information about the IC review process can be found in Part 10 of the Guidelines which are available on our website at <http://www.oaic.gov.au/publications/guidelines.html>.

RIGHT TO COMPLAIN under Part VIIB of the Act

Section 70 of the Act provides that a person may complain to the IC about action taken by the Australian Federal Police in relation to your application.

A complaint to the IC may be made in writing and identify the agency against which the complaint is made.

The IC may be contacted on 1300 363 992. There is no particular form required to make a complaint, but the complaint should set out the grounds on which you consider the action should be investigated.
