Dear Ms Doyle

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST: ESTIMATE OF CHARGES

I refer to your email of 12 December 2013 in which you revised the scope of your FOI request to seek access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the Act) as follows:

- the most recent correspondence that relates to recommendations around the sale of Graincorp to ADM received from the Foreign Investment Review Board; and
- the most recent correspondence received by the Treasurer or the Department of the Treasury from ADM in relation to the proposed sale of Graincorp and any reply sent.

I confirm that the relevant period of the revised request to be documents in existence as at 24 November 2013."

The Freedom of Information (Fees and Charges) Amendment Regulations 2010 (the Regulations) prescribes that charges can be levied in respect of a request for access to documents. These charges are set out by the Regulations and are for search and retrieval of documents, decision making and provision where applicable.

I am an authorised decision maker under section 23 of the Act. I have decided that you are liable to pay a charge in respect of the processing of your request. My preliminary assessment of the charge is $75.00 (see table for detail of charges).

Search and retrieval, tag relevant pages	$29.00
Decision-making (after deducting first five hours free)	$46.00
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • examine relevant pages for decision making (includes exempted pages and pages released with deletions)(first five hours free) • preparing schedules and preparation and notification of decision
TOTAL COST	$75.00

The charges set out above are determined in line with the Regulations to fairly reflect the work involved in processing a request, such as for search and retrieval of documents, decision making and provision of access and are not indicative of the level of access that may be granted to the documents sought.

The charge for search and retrieval is based on a search of the Treasury's electronic records systems and of files held by individuals in areas for which the subject matter contained in the request is potentially of relevance. Around two documents have been identified as potentially falling within the scope of your request. These documents will require a decision on access and I estimate that will take around eight hours. The first five hours of decision making time are free of charge. Therefore you will only be charged for three hours. It is my preliminary view — without yet having undertaken a detailed examination at this stage — that there are exemption and/or conditional exemption provisions under the Act that will apply to parts of the documents.

The Regulations prescribe that where a charge is imposed and exceeds $25.00 but is less than $100.00, a deposit of $20.00 may be sought and where the charge exceeds $100.00, a deposit of up to 25 per cent of the estimated charges may be sought. Based on the preliminary estimate of charges for your request which is $75.00, I have decided you are required to pay a deposit of $20.00.

Within 30 days of receipt of this notice you are required to either:

- pay the charge; or
 - pay a deposit with the remainder to be paid prior to receipt of documentation, or
 - contend that the charge
 - has been wrongly assessed, or
 - should be reduced, or
 - not imposed, or both; or
- } You should give } full reasons for so
} contending
- withdraw your request.

Options for payment are attached.

You may contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed. In deciding whether to reduce or not to impose a charge, the decision maker has discretion to consider reduction or remission of charges for any reason, including the following reasons:

- the payment of the fee or a part of the fee would cause financial hardship to the applicant or person on whose behalf the application was made; or
- the giving of access is in the general public interest or in the interest of a substantial section of the public.

If you wish to contest the charges, you should give full reasons for doing so.

If you fail to notify the Treasury in a manner mentioned above within 30 days of receipt of this notice it will be taken that you have withdrawn your request.

The Treasury considers the names, email addresses and other contact details of public service officers to be irrelevant to an FOI request. These details will not be released pursuant to section 22 of the Act. We will provide you with the designations (for example, Analyst, Senior Adviser, Manager) of authors and addressees of documents in the schedule of documents accompanying the decision letter so that their relative seniority is known. You have not been charged for any redactions to documents required as a result of this practice.

The Treasury treats documents that are publicly available (for example, documents published on a publicly accessible website) as irrelevant to an FOI request. This means that you will not be charged for, or be provided with, publicly available documents under FOI.

In accordance with section 31 of the Act, the 30 day limit for processing your request is suspended from the day that you receive this notice and resumes on either the day you pay the charge (in full or the required deposit) or the day on which this agency makes a decision not to impose a charge.

The Treasury publishes all documents disclosed in response to FOI requests (other than personal or business information that would be unreasonable to publish) on the Treasury website at the same time as the applicant receives the response. This is consistent with the arrangements established by section 11C of the Act, which formally commenced operation on 1 May 2011.

Yours sincerely
