

NOTICE OF DECISION MADE UNDER SECTION 23
OF THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1982 (CTH) (FOI ACT)
WITH REASONS FOR DECISION PROVIDED UNDER SECTION 26

Applicant: Phillip Sweeney

Decision-maker: Lauren Willars, an authorised officer of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) for the purposes of section 23(1) of the FOI Act.

Relevant documents: Request for documents relating to (i) a copy of the founding Trust Deed of the Suncorp Master Trust; and (ii) a copy of the decision letter advising that APRA had granted fund registration for this retail superannuation fund.

My decision: Refuse access, under section 38 of the FOI Act, to one document, because the document is a protected document and contains protected information under section 56 of the APRA Act.

Grant access, under section 11A(3) of the FOI Act, to the document specified in the attached Schedule.

MATERIAL FACTS

1. I refer to your email dated 10 September 2018 in which you sought access under the FOI Act to:

“The documents I seek are:

(i) a copy of the founding Trust Deed of the Suncorp Master Trust; and

(ii) a copy of the decision letter advising that APRA had granted fund registration for this retail superannuation fund.”

(your FOI request).
2. By email dated 10 September 2018, APRA acknowledged receipt of your request.

DOCUMENTS RELATING TO THIRD PARTIES

3. The Applicant's request is for documents that contain information relating to the business affairs of an APRA-regulated entity. Therefore, APRA extended the statutory timeline until 9 November 2018 under section 27 of the FOI Act to allow APRA time to consult with the entity.

EVIDENCE AND MATERIAL RELIED ON

4. In making my decision, I have relied on the following evidence and material:
  - a) the Applicant's request received by APRA on 10 September 2018;
  - b) acknowledgment email from FOI Officer to the Applicant dated 10 September 2018;
  - c) email from FOI Officer notifying the applicant of the third party consultation on 4 October 2018;
  - d) email correspondence between the relevant trustee and APRA during October 2018;
  - e) the documents falling within the scope of your request (relevant documents);
  - f) relevant sections of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998 (Cth) (APRA Act);
  - g) relevant sections of the FOI Act; and
  - h) guidelines issued by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner to date (FOI Guidelines).

REASONS FOR DECISION

5. APRA has conducted all reasonable searches of its records and identified all documents relevant to your FOI request (relevant documents).
6. I note that the Suncorp Master Trust was formerly known as Asteron Life Superannuation Fund.
7. APRA consulted the relevant trustee. The trustee did not object to the disclosure of the document specified in the attached Schedule. I have therefore decided to grant access to the specified document.
8. The trustee objected to the release of one document relevant to the request. I have considered the submissions made by the trustee in support of this objection.
9. Accordingly, I have decided to refuse access to this document under section 38 of the FOI Act as the document is a protected document and/or contains protected information under section 56 of the APRA Act.

Secrecy Provisions

10. I have taken the following approach in relation to the application of section 56 of the APRA Act and section 38 of the FOI Act:
  - a) under section 38 of the FOI Act, a document is exempt if disclosure is prohibited under a provision of an enactment and section 38 expressly applies to that provision;

- b) subsection 56(11) of the APRA Act expressly applies section 38 of the FOI Act so that any document that is a 'protected document' or contains 'protected information' within the meaning of subsection 56(1) of the APRA Act is also an exempt document under section 38 of the FOI Act;
  - c) under section 56(2) of the APRA Act it is an offence to directly or indirectly disclose protected documents and/or protected information unless a specified exemption applies. This offence provision is binding on me as an APRA staff member. The offence is punishable by up to two years imprisonment;
  - d) a 'protected document' is defined in section 56(1) of the APRA Act to include documents given or produced under or for the purposes of a prudential regulation framework law, and containing information relating to the affairs of a financial sector entity. The Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth) is a prudential regulation framework law. The document relates to Suncorp Master Trust, which is a financial sector entity. Therefore, the s 56 document is a protected documents unless otherwise publicly available;
  - e) 'protected information' is defined in section 56(1) of the APRA Act to include information disclosed or obtained under or for the purposes of a prudential regulation framework law, and relating to the affairs of a financial sector entity. For the same reasons set out in paragraph 9(d) above, information contained in the document is protected, unless otherwise publicly available. The information in the s 56 document is protected information, unless it is otherwise publicly available; and
  - f) The information and the s 56 document is not otherwise publicly available.
11. I am satisfied that the s 56 document is a protected document, and/or contains protected information as defined in section 56(1) of the APRA Act and that the document is consequently exempt under section 38 of the FOI Act.

Note: Access may be given to an exempt document apart from under this Act, whether or not in response to a request (see section 3A (objects—information or documents otherwise accessible)).

- (5) The agency or Minister must give the person access to the document if it is conditionally exempt at a particular time unless (in the circumstances) access to the document at that time would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest.

Note 1: Division 3 of Part IV provides for when a document is conditionally exempt.

Note 2: A conditionally exempt document is an exempt document if access to the document would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest (see section 31B (exempt documents for the purposes of Part IV)).

Note 3: Section 11B deals with when it is contrary to the public interest to give a person access to the document.

- (6) Despite subsection (5), the agency or Minister is not required to give access to the document at a particular time if, at that time, the document is both:

24A Requests may be refused if documents cannot be found, do not exist or have not been received

27 Consultation—business documents

Scope

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) a request is made to an agency or Minister for access to a document containing information (business information) covered by subsection (2) in respect of a person, organisation or undertaking; and
  - (b) it appears to the agency or Minister that the person, organisation or proprietor of the undertaking (the person or organisation concerned) might reasonably wish to make a contention (the exemption contention) that:
    - (i) the document is exempt under section 47 (trade secrets etc.); or
    - (ii) the document is conditionally exempt under section 47G (business information) and access to the document would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest for the purposes of subsection 11A(5).

Note: Access must generally be given to a conditionally exempt document unless it would be contrary to the public interest (see section 11A).

- (2) This subsection covers the following information:
  - (a) in relation to a person—information about the person's business or professional affairs;
  - (b) in relation to an organisation or undertaking—information about the business, commercial or financial affairs of the organisation or undertaking.
- (3) In determining, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), whether the person or organisation concerned might reasonably wish to make an exemption contention because of business information in a document, the agency or Minister must have regard to the following matters:
  - (a) the extent to which the information is well known;
  - (b) whether the person, organisation or undertaking is known to be associated with the matters dealt with in the information;
  - (c) the availability of the information from publicly accessible sources;

(d) any other matters that the agency or Minister considers relevant.

Opportunity to make submissions

- (4) The agency or Minister must not decide to give access to the document unless:
- (a) the person or organisation concerned is given a reasonable opportunity to make submissions in support of the exemption contention; and
  - (b) the agency or the Minister has regard to any submissions so made.
- (5) However, subsection (4) only applies if it is reasonably practicable for the agency or Minister to give the person or organisation concerned a reasonable opportunity to make submissions in support of the exemption contention, having regard to all the circumstances (including the application of subsections 15(5) and (6) (time limits for processing requests)).

Notice of decision to give access

- (6) If the agency or Minister decides to give access to the document, the agency or Minister must give written notice of the decision to both of the following:
- (a) the person or organisation concerned;
  - (b) the applicant.

Access not to be given until review or appeal opportunities have run out

- (7) However, the agency or Minister must not give the applicant access to the document unless, after all the opportunities of the person or organisation concerned for review or appeal in relation to the decision to give access to the document have run out, the decision to give access still stands, or is confirmed.

Note 1: The decision to give access to the document is subject to internal review (see Part VI), review by the Information Commissioner (see Part VII) and review by the Tribunal (see Part VIIA).

Note 2: For when all opportunities for review or appeal in relation to the decision to give access to the document have run out, see subsection 4(1).

Notice and stay of decision not to apply unless submission made in support of exemption contention

- (8) Subsections (6) and (7) do not apply unless the person or organisation concerned makes a submission in support of the exemption contention as allowed under paragraph (4)(a).

Edited copies and business information

- (9) This section applies:
- (a) in relation to an edited copy of a document—in the same way as it applies to the document; and
  - (b) in relation to a document containing business information—to the extent to which the document contains such information.
