

Evidence of Identity Requirements for Individuals

As part of the Department of Transport and Main Roads application process, you may be required to present evidence of your identity (EOI) and evidence of residential or garaging address documents.

If you are unable to present your Queensland driver licence (current or expired less than two years), the EOI requirements may be met if you can present your current Queensland industry authority, marine licence indicator or adult proof of age card (conditions apply). If you are unable to present any of these documents, you will need to present three original EOI documents:

One category A + two category B or Two category A + one category B

All documents must be original and current unless otherwise stated. Photocopies and certified copies of original documents are acceptable. The category A document must show your full name. At least one category A or B document must show your signature. EOI documents presented may be verified with the issuing authority.
