Dear Posty

Freedom of Information Act 1982 - Notice of Decision

I refer to your correspondence, received by the Department of Industry, Innovation and Science (the department) on 31 December 2018, for access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) to the following:

All email (or the last 3 years, if that is too voluminous) sent to the Freedom of Information Team's email address that feature compliments relating to this department's Freedom of Information Disclosure Log.

If there's too many of them, and the redaction would require too much effort to do, a simple number of documents over the time period is fine (a year breakdown would be great but I don't want to push it).

Decision

I am an authorised decision maker under section 23 of the FOI Act.

A search of the departments FOI email system and other document repositories was conducted using various keywords and dating back 2013. As such, we do not have possession of documents relating to any compliments relating to the department FOI disclosure log.

I am satisfied all reasonable searches have been conducted to locate documents relevant to your request and documents either: (1) cannot be found, or (2) do not exist. Section 24A of the FOI Act permits me to refuse access to documents in either of those circumstances. Accordingly, I have made a decision to refuse access.

If you are dissatisfied with any part of my decision, your review rights are set out in Attachment A.

Please contact the FOI team by e-mail at FOI@industry.gov.au, if you require further clarification.

Yours sincerely

Robert Maclean
A/g General Counsel
Legal, Audit and Assurance Branch

REVIEW RIGHTS

Application for Internal Review

Section 54 of the FOI Act gives you the option to apply for a departmental internal review of my decision. If you make an application for internal review it will be conducted by an officer of the department (other than me) appointed by the Secretary of the department to conduct a review and make a completely fresh decision on the merits of the case.

Application for a review of the decision must be made within 30 days after the day of receipt of this letter, or within 15 days of receipt of the documents to which this decision relates (whichever is the longer period). You do not have to pay any fees or processing charges for an internal review, except for charges relating to the provision of any additional relevant material located as a result of the review (for example photocopying). While a specific form is not required, it would assist the decision maker if your application specifies the grounds on which you consider the decision should be reviewed.

Application for a review of a decision should be addressed to:

FOI Coordinator
Department of Industry, Innovation and Science
GPO Box 2013
CANBERRA ACT 2601

or by e-mail to: FOI@industry.gov.au.

Review by the Australian Information Commissioner

If any decision on internal review were not satisfactory to you, section 54L of the FOI Act gives you the right to apply for review of my decision by the Information Commissioner.

An application for review by the Information Commissioner may be made regardless of whether the decision was the subject of a departmental internal review. An application for review by the Information Commissioner must be made within 60 days of receipt of this notice. There is no fee for review by the Information Commissioner.

You must apply in writing and you can lodge your application in one of the following ways:

Online: www.oaic.gov.au
Post: GPO Box 5218, Sydney NSW 2001
Fax: +61 2 9284 9666
Email: enquiries@oaic.gov.au

An application form is available on the website at www.oaic.gov.au. Your application should include a copy of this notice and your contact details. You should also set out why you are objecting to the decision.

Complaints to the Australian Information Commissioner

You may complain to the Australian Information Commissioner concerning action taken by an agency in the exercise of powers or the performance of functions under the FOI Act. There is no fee for making a complaint. The Australian Information Commissioner will make a completely independent investigation of your complaint. A complaint to the Australian Information Commissioner must be made in writing and can be lodged online using the Information Commissioner Complaint Application form on the Australian Information Commissioner's website at www.oaic.gov.au.
