Dear Nil

Freedom of Information Request - Decision

I refer to your request to the Department of the Treasury (the Treasury) on 6 February 2019, for access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) to the following:

any emails contained in all of Philip Gaetjens' outlook items (including deleted items) that contain any of the following terms (in the body of an email and/or in the addressee fields of an email): "liberal.org.au" or "ipa.org.au".

I am an authorised decision maker under section 23 of the FOI Act.

Decision

I have identified four documents held by the Treasury that fall within the scope of your request.

I have decided to release these documents to you in full, attached.

Further information regarding my decision is set out below.

Material Considered

The material to which I have had regard in making this decision includes:

- the scope of the FOI request
- the content of the documents subject to your request;
- the relevant provisions in the FOI Act;
- advice from subject matter experts within the Treasury; and
- the Guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under s93A of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Guidelines).

Rights of Review

A statement setting out your rights of review in this matter is attached.

Disclosure Log

Treasury publishes all documents disclosed in response to FOI requests (other than personal or business information that would be unreasonable to publish) on the Treasury website at the same time as the applicant receives the response. This is consistent with the arrangements established by section 11C of the FOI Act.

Yours sincerely

Matt Flavel
Deputy Secretary
Corporate Services and Business Strategy Group

INFORMATION ON RIGHTS OF REVIEW

1. APPLICATION FOR INTERNAL REVIEW OF DECISION

Section 54 of the Freedom of Information Act gives you the right to apply for an internal review of the decision refusing to grant access to documents in accordance with your request.

Application for a review of the decision must be made in writing within 30 days of receipt of this letter.

No particular form is required but it would assist the decision-maker if you could set out in the application the grounds on which you consider that the decision should be reviewed.

Application for a review of the decision should be emailed to FOI@Treasury.gov.au.

OR

2. APPLICATION TO AUSTRALIAN INFORMATION COMMISSIONER (INFORMATION COMMISSIONER) FOR REVIEW OF DECISION

Section 54L of the FOI Act gives you the right to seek a review of the decision from the Information Commissioner. An application for review must be made within 60 days of receiving the decision.

Applications for review must be in writing and must:

- give details of how notices must be sent to you; and
- include a copy of the notice of decision.

You should send your application for review to:

The Information Commissioner
Office of the Australian Information Commissioner
GPO Box 5218
SYDNEY NSW 2001

AND/OR

3. COMPLAINTS TO THE INFORMATION COMMISSIONER

Section 70 of the FOI Act provides that a person may complain to the Information Commissioner about action taken by an agency in the exercise of powers or the performance of functions under the FOI Act.

A complaint to the Information Commissioner must be in writing and identify the agency the complaint is about. It should be directed to the following address:

The Information Commissioner
Office of the Australian Information Commissioner
GPO Box 5218
SYDNEY NSW 2001

The Information Commissioner may decline to investigate the complaint in a number of circumstances, including that you did not exercise your right to ask the agency, the Information Commissioner, a court or tribunal to review the decision.
