Dear P Johns

FOI REQUEST– REFERENCE NUMBER 201920-006

I refer to your email of 29 July 2019 in which you sought access to the following under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act):

“All correspondence between Dan Oakes and David McBride relating to the afghan files publication.”

Authorisation

I am authorised by the Managing Director under Section 23 of the FOI Act to make decisions in respect of requests made under that Act. Following is my decision in relation to your request.

Decision – Section 7(2) (program material)

The ABC is specifically excluded from the operation of the FOI Act in relation to its program material, and documents in relation to its program material, by virtue of Section 7(2) and Division 1 of Part II of Schedule 2 of the FOI Act.

'Program material' is not defined in the FOI Act. However, it has been the subject of judicial consideration. The FOI Guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner (the Guidelines) summarise this case law at paragraph 2.16:

The exemption for ‘program material’ of the ABC and SBS has been considered in Federal Court,¹ AAT² and IC review cases.³ Australian Broadcasting Corporation and Herald and Weekly Times Pty Limited, the AAT held that program material means a document ‘which is the program and all versions of the whole or any part of the program, any transmission broadcast or publication

¹ See Australian Broadcasting Corporation v University of Technology, Sydney [2006] FCA 964; and Bell v Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation [2008] FCAFC 40.

² Australian Broadcasting Corporation and Herald and Weekly Times Pty Limited [2012] AATA 914

³ Herald and Weekly Times Pty Ltd and Australian Broadcasting Corporation [2012] AICmr 7; ‘F’ and Australian Broadcasting Corporation [2012] AICmr 8; ‘ER’ and Special Broadcasting Service [2015] AICmr 12; and Fist and Australian Broadcasting Corporation [2014] AICmr 14.

of the program, and includes a document of any content or form embodied in the program and any document acquired or created for the purpose of creating the program, whether or not incorporated into the complete program'.⁴

When it comes to documents 'in relation to' program material, the Guidelines adopt the 'reasonably direct relationship' test in ABC and HWT.⁵ I consider this the correct approach, i.e. that the ABC exemption applies to documents comprising 'program material' in the sense described above, as well as documents which have a reasonably direct relationship with that program material. The Guidelines contrast 'reasonably direct' with a connection that is "indirect, remote or tenuous".⁶ I have taken the same approach.

Mr McBride is an external party to the ABC and is therefore not party to or involved in any administrative or other day-to-day operational functions of the ABC. His contact with the ABC in relation to a specific piece of ABC content could only be in relation to that article or program's substance. Any document containing correspondence between Mr McBride and Mr Oakes, that is also a document containing discussions surrounding publication of the Afghan Files, would, by its nature, be ABC program material or have a direct relationship with program material.

It is clear you are seeking access to documents which are, or have a direct relationship to, the substantive matter of specific piece of ABC content. Those documents are 'program material' for the purposes of the FOI Act, and the ABC is exempt from the operation of the Act in relation to them. On that basis, access to the documents described in your request is refused under section 7(2) of the FOI Act and no further steps will be taken in this matter.

Review rights

You have rights in relation to this decision. Those rights are set out in Annexure A to this decision.

Yours sincerely,

Pamela Longstaff
