Dear P Johns,

FOI REQUEST – REFERENCE NUMBER ABC FOI 201920-012

I refer to your email of 1 August 2019 in which you sought access to the following under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act):

“...all documents [created or held by] Sam Clark and/or Dan Oakes regarding whether its legal to publish and/or have possession of classified material specifically the documents published known as the afghan files.”

Authorisation

I am authorised by the Managing Director under Section 23 of the FOI Act to make decisions in respect of requests made under that Act. Following is my decision in relation to your request.

Decision – Section 7(2) (program material)

The ABC is specifically excluded from the operation of the FOI Act in relation to its program material, and documents in relation to its program material, by virtue of Section 7(2) and Division 1 of Part II of Schedule 2 of the FOI Act.

'Program material' is not defined in the FOI Act. However, it has been the subject of judicial consideration. The FOI Guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner (the Guidelines) summarise this case law at paragraph 2.16:

The exemption for 'program material' of the ABC and SBS has been considered in Federal Court,¹ AAT² and IC review cases.³ Australian Broadcasting Corporation and Herald and Weekly Times Pty Limited, the AAT held that program material means a document 'which is the program and all versions of the whole or any part of the program, any transmission broadcast or publication of the program, and includes a document of any content or form embodied in the program and any document acquired or created for the purpose of creating the program, whether or not incorporated into the complete program'.⁴

When it comes to documents 'in relation to' program material, the Guidelines adopt the 'reasonably direct relationship' test in ABC and HWT.⁵ I consider this the correct approach, i.e. that the ABC exemption applies to documents comprising 'program material' in the sense described above, as well as documents which have a reasonably direct relationship with that program material. The Guidelines contrast 'reasonably direct' with a connection that is "indirect, remote or tenuous".⁶ I have taken the same approach.

Any documents containing information legal or otherwise about the decision to publish material in 'The Afghan files' stories would be documents that have a direct relationship with ABC program material. The decision to publish certain types of information in a specific program is one that must be made during the editorial process – the documents containing these discussions and related decisions would not exist were it not for a particular program being created for broadcast/publishing. Any document found to be in scope of your request would, by its nature, be directly related to the substantive material of a specific piece of ABC content, that content being 'The Afghan Files'.

It is clear on the face of your request that you are seeking access to documents which are, or have a direct relationship to, 'program material'. The ABC is exempt from the operation of the FOI Act in relation to any such document, and on that basis, access to the documents described in your request is refused under section 7(2) of the FOI Act.

You have rights in relation to this decision. Those rights are set out in Annexure A to this decision.
