Hi Jocelyn

In John s 47E(c), s 47E(d) absence, could you please advise me where we are at with regard to a 'secretarial' (or departmental) response to Mr Alan Ashmore?

As you can see from his latest email below (sent last night), he states that he will be approaching the Ombudsman's office if he does not receive a satisfactory response from DVA by 31 August 2018 to his original correspondence received by us on 29 June 2018

Regards
David

Subject: RE: COMPLAINTS x 2 [TO BE CLASSIFIED] [SEC=UNCLASSIFIED]

Hi Phillip,

This email is the second follow regarding my two complaints lodged by email in the evening of 28 June 2018, (and received by DVA on 29 June 2018).

I note your website says DVA usually resolve complaints within 28 days although complex cases may take longer to address.

I believe my complaints do not fall into the 'complex case category' and therefore request you finalise these two complaints by no later than Friday 31 August 2018. I note this date is more two months since I first lodged the complaints.

Should a satisfactory response not be received by 31 August 2018 I will formally take this matter up with the Ombudsman.

I wish you well as you serve the veteran community.

Kind Regards,

ALAN ASHMORE
