Dear Ms Wolf

Practical refusal notice - Freedom of Information Act 1982

I am writing to you in relation to your request under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the Act) on 23 March 2014 for:

CCTV footage or body worn cameras from any premises either run by or otherwise provided to or managed under contract on behalf of the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) or any other government department that reports to or is otherwise related to DIBP on Nauru from 17 to 20 July, 2013.

I note that your request is currently due on Tuesday, 22 April 2014.

Purpose of this notice

The purpose of this notice is to advise you (as required under s.24AB of the Act) that I consider that a 'practical refusal reason' exists under s. 24AA of the Act and that I am considering refusing access to the requested documents, under s.24 of the Act. My reasons are set out in this notice. This notice sets out the actions required from you in order to ensure that no 'practical refusal reason' applies to your request.

Advice regarding practical refusal reasons

The Act contains two 'practical refusal reasons'. The first is that processing the request 'would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the agency from its other operation' (s.24AA(1)(a)). An agency may also refuse an FOI request if the agency is satisfied that the request does not 'provide such information concerning the document as is reasonably necessary to enable a responsible officer of the agency to identify' the document in question (s.24AA(1)(b)).

people our business

It is the department's view that where it appears that a request under the Act for access to documents is likely to take more than 40 hours to complete, the request should be assessed under s.24AA(1) of the Act to determine whether a 'practical refusal reason' exists in relation to the request. This balances the right of applicants to seek information under the Act with the department's need to appropriately allocate resources to its functions.

Application of s.24AA of the FOI Act to your request

The relevant business area has advised that the department holds video footage for the period of 17 to 20 July 2013.

Type of footage

The majority of the footage was taken by Wilson Security via body cameras. There is also some footage taken via mobile phone recording.

The footage is contained in files that exist on a shared drive.

Time taken to retrieve footage

In relation to the footage taken via body cameras, 66 files have been located. The business area has indicated that the search for and retrieval of the relevant files from the shared drive took a significant amount of time (approximately 2 days to complete).

Length of footage

The approximate length of footage for the 66 files is over 6 hours.

Images on footage

All files contain facial images of transferees (and to some extent departmental staff). I am of the view that the faces would have to be de-identified (e.g. through pixilation), as the release of images of transferees in immigration detention would constitute an unreasonable disclosure of their personal information.

Editing footage

The time involved in editing the footage is significant. Industry quotes from editing companies in other FOI request for video footage is as follows:

Video Length	Real-time edit
1 frame	9 seconds
25 frames (1 sec)	3.75 minutes
1 minute	225 minutes
15 minutes	3375 minutes (56.25 hours)

This would make the editing of the footage for your request over 1350 hours.

In light of the above, I am satisfied that your request 'would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources' of the department 'from its other operations' and that a practical refusal reason may apply to your request as it currently stands. Therefore, I am required to consult with you under s.24AB of the Act regarding the scope of your request.

Consultation over scope

The 'consultation period' is from the date of this notice until close of business Friday, 25 April 2014. However, as this date falls on a non-working day, s.36(2) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 provides that the latest date you may respond is the next working day, which is Monday, 28 April 2014.

You may consult with me on the scope during 23 -28 April 2014 and with my colleague, Steven Hocking during 12-22 April 2014. My work number is: (02) 6264 1757, Steven Hocking's number is: (02) 6264 1007. Please send electronic correspondence to the department's FOI in-box (foi@immi.gov.au).

You may request that the consultation period be extended if you wish, by writing to me or Steven Hocking before the end of the consultation period at foi@immi.gov.au. The requirements for the consultation period are contained in (s.24AB(5)).

Suspension of processing time

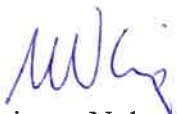

Please note that s.24AB(8) of the FOI Act provides the legislated processing time for your request is 'suspended' until you have either:

- revised the request or
- advised me that you do not intend to revise the request.

In addition, if you do not contact me in writing before the end of the consultation period (to either withdraw your request, revise or affirm the scope of your request, or ask for an extension of time to respond to the s.24AB notice) your request will be deemed to be withdrawn in accordance with s.24AB(7) of the Act. The relevant legislation is attached to this notice.

I look forward to hearing from you shortly.

Yours sincerely

Attachment A – Extract of relevant legislation

24 Power to refuse request—diversion of resources etc.

- (1) If an agency or Minister is satisfied, when dealing with a request for a document, that a practical refusal reason exists in relation to the request (see section 24AA), the agency or Minister:
 - (a) must undertake a request consultation process (see section 24AB); and
 - (b) if, after the request consultation process, the agency or Minister is satisfied that the practical refusal reason still exists—the agency or Minister may refuse to give access to the document in accordance with the request.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the agency or Minister may treat 2 or more requests as a single request if the agency or Minister is satisfied that:
 - (a) the requests relate to the same document or documents; or
 - (b) the requests relate to documents, the subject matter of which is substantially the same.

24AA When does a practical refusal reason exist?

- (1) For the purposes of section 24, a practical refusal reason exists in relation to a request for a document if either (or both) of the following applies:
 - (a) the work involved in processing the request:
 - (i) in the case of an agency—would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the agency from its other operations; or
 - (ii) in the case of a Minister—would substantially and unreasonably interfere with the performance of the Minister’s functions;
 - (b) the request does not satisfy the requirement in paragraph 15(2)(b) (identification of documents).
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), but without limiting the matters to which the agency or Minister may have regard, in deciding whether a practical refusal reason exists, the agency or Minister must have regard to the resources that would have to be used for the following:
 - (a) identifying, locating or collating the documents within the filing system of the agency, or the office of the Minister;
 - (b) deciding whether to grant, refuse or defer access to a document to which the request relates, or to grant access to an edited copy of such a document, including resources that would have to be used for:
 - (i) examining the document; or
 - (ii) consulting with any person or body in relation to the request;
 - (c) making a copy, or an edited copy, of the document;
 - (d) notifying any interim or final decision on the request.
- (3) In deciding whether a practical refusal reason exists, an agency or Minister must not have regard to:
 - (a) any reasons that the applicant gives for requesting access; or
 - (b) the agency’s or Minister’s belief as to what the applicant’s reasons are for requesting access; or
 - (c) any maximum amount, specified in the regulations, payable as a charge for processing a request of that kind.

24AB What is a request consultation process?

Scope

- (1) This section sets out what is a request consultation process for the purposes of section 24.

Requirement to notify

- (2) The agency or Minister must give the applicant a written notice stating the following:
 - (a) an intention to refuse access to a document in accordance with a request;
 - (b) the practical refusal reason;
 - (c) the name of an officer of the agency or member of staff of the Minister (the contact person) with whom the applicant may consult during a period;
 - (d) details of how the applicant may contact the contact person;
 - (e) that the period (the consultation period) during which the applicant may consult with the contact person is 14 days after the day the applicant is given the notice.

Assistance to revise request

- (3) If the applicant contacts the contact person during the consultation period in accordance with the notice, the agency or Minister must take reasonable steps to assist the applicant to revise the request so that the practical refusal reason no longer exists.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), reasonable steps includes the following:
 - (a) giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity to consult with the contact person;
 - (b) providing the applicant with any information that would assist the applicant to revise the request.

Extension of consultation period

- (5) The contact person may, with the applicant's agreement, extend the consultation period by written notice to the applicant.

Outcome of request consultation process

- (6) The applicant must, before the end of the consultation period, do one of the following, by written notice to the agency or Minister:
 - (a) withdraw the request;
 - (b) make a revised request;
 - (c) indicate that the applicant does not wish to revise the request.
- (7) The request is taken to have been withdrawn under subsection (6) at the end of the consultation period if:
 - (a) the applicant does not consult the contact person during the consultation period in accordance with the notice; or
 - (b) the applicant does not do one of the things mentioned in subsection (6) before the end of the consultation period.

Consultation period to be disregarded in calculating processing period

- (8) The period starting on the day an applicant is given a notice under subsection (2) and ending on the day the applicant does one of the things mentioned in paragraph (6)(b) or (c) is to be disregarded in working out the 30 day period mentioned in paragraph 15(5)(b).

Note: Paragraph 15(5)(b) requires that an agency or Minister take all reasonable steps to notify an applicant of a decision on the applicant's request within 30 days after the request is made.

No more than one request consultation process required

- (9) To avoid doubt, this section only obliges the agency or Minister to undertake a request consultation process once for any particular request.
