

24 February 2020

Mr Tim McBride

foi+request-6085-616e735e@righttoknow.org.au

Our Ref: FOI1920/60.07

Dear Mr McBride

FOI Application – Advance Deposit Request

I am writing in relation to your request, made under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act).

Acknowledgment

As required by section 15(5) of the FOI Act, I acknowledge receipt of your request and note you are seeking access to:

“Current or most up to date GeoJSON or CSV/TSV data of the status (planned, construction or available) and technology type (being Fibre to the Premesis (FTTP), Fibre to the Building (FTTB), Hybrid Fibre Coaxial (HFC), Fibre to the Curb (FTTC), Fibre to the Node (FTTN), Fixed Wireless & Skymuster (Satellite)) on a per site/premises/dwelling level, nationally.”

Decision-Making Period & Consultation

The processing period for this FOI request commences on 13 February 2020, being the day after receipt of your FOI application. The statutory period for processing an FOI request is generally 30 days.

Advance Deposit Request

Under the FOI Act, applicants have a right to seek documents, rather than information or datasets. However, section 17 of the FOI Act permits FOI agencies to draw information from computers or other equipment and to collate that information into a document, which had previously not existed. This requirement is subject to a caveat, i.e. that an FOI agency is not required to collate the information if it would substantially and unreasonably divert the agency’s resources, among other issues.

It is not nbn’s business practice to produce the datasets requested. The time required to produce the requested dataset is as specified below and would require nbn SMEs to take time away from their core functions in order to process this FOI request in its current form.

nbn staff have undertaken a search for the requested documents and data, and the search and retrieval time is detailed below. This includes SME time for design of a solution which involves identification of the data sets, a prototype that proves the design concept, clarifications required to resolve issues uncovered during the design, development and testing of the solution's code, and verification of results.

In accordance with subsection 29(1) of the FOI Act, I have determined that a charge is payable, in respect of the processing of this FOI request.

nbn staff completed a preliminary assessment of the work involved in processing your FOI request and our company estimates the applicable charges as follows:

Search and Retrieval Time	42 hours @ $15.00 per hour	$630
Decision Making Time	15 hours @ $20.00 per hour	$300
Sub-total		$930
Less first 5 hours decision making time(*)		($100.00)
TOTAL		$830

(*) In accordance with the Freedom of Information (Fees and Charges) Regulations, nbn has not charged you for the first 5 hours of decision-making time.

Please note that the estimated processing time – and relevant fees – may increase (or decrease), depending on the nature of the work required. However, I will inform you if the fees increase beyond the estimate outlined above. As the total estimated processing charges exceeds $100, a deposit of 25% ($232.50) is required.

Next steps

Within 30 days of this notice, you are required to:

- agree to pay the charge and forward the deposit; or
- contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed (you should provide full reasons for your contention); or
- narrow the scope of your request (which may reduce the charge payable); or
- withdraw your request.

If you fail to notify nbn in a manner mentioned above, within 30 days of this notice, your request will be taken to have been withdrawn. In addition, if you contend that the estimated charge has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed, you must notify nbn of your contention, providing reasons, and evidence where relevant, to support your submission. In deciding whether to reduce or not to impose a charge, the FOI decision-maker will consider all relevant factors, including:

- whether payment of the charge, or a part of it, would cause you financial hardship; and
- whether the giving of access is in the general public interest.

If you choose to contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed or should be reduced or not imposed, this will not constitute a request for internal review. You will be advised of your review rights under sections 53A and 54 of the FOI Act following consideration of your contentions.

Once nbn has completed the processing of your request, the assessment of the charge payable will be revised based on the actual amount of work involved in processing your request. If you are refused access to any of the documents that are relevant to your request, nbn may not impose an actual charge that is higher than the final estimated charge. This means that, if you are refused access to any document, the actual charge that will be payable will be lower than or equal to, but not more than, the final estimate of charges. It is only if you are granted access to all the documents that are relevant to your request that the actual charge imposed may be higher than the estimated charge. It is important to note that the payment of FOI processing fees does not guarantee access to documents or information.

If you agree to pay the estimated charge set out above, or the deposit for that charge, you should arrange to pay nbn, using the following electronic banking details:

Bank name: CBA
Name: nbn co limited FOI
BSB: 062-438
Account no: 10240782
Reference: FOI-0007

When making a payment, please ensure you include the reference noted above.

Please note that if you provide a deposit and the processing of your request progresses to a point where a decision on access is made, a determination about the imposition of the actual charge will be made at that time. The balance of the actual charge will become a debt due to the Commonwealth, which nbn would be obliged to pursue, unless other arrangements are made – or if nbn agrees to waive the fees.

As set out above, per section 31 of the FOI Act, the time limit for processing your request is suspended from the day you receive this notice, being today's date. Please also be advised that the charge notice day is not counted in calculating the processing time limit. For your reference, 10 days have passed, and the processing time limit will resume:

- on the day upon which nbn receives your deposit;
- alternatively, if you decide to contest the charge, the processing time limit will resume on the day upon which nbn notifies you of its decision not to impose a charge – if nbn so makes a decision; or
- in the event that nbn decides to reduce the charge and deposit is required, the processing time limit will recommence on the day upon which you pay the reduced deposit.

More information about charges under the FOI Act is available in Fact Sheet 7 on the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner's (OAIC) website and in part 4 of the OAIC FOI Guidelines.

nbn's Commercial Activities Carve-out

I refer you to nbn's commercial activities carve-out (the CAC), per section 7\(3A\) and Part II of Schedule 2 of the FOI Act. Please be aware that documents that relate to nbn's "commercial activities" are not subject to the operation of the FOI Act and would likely be exempt from release. The following link summarises and provides general background information concerning nbn's commercial activities carve-out. That background document references two OAIC reviews that considered nbn's CAC: the Internode Decision (in January 2012) and the Battersby Decision (in July 2013).

Disclosure Log Notification

In accordance with the FOI Act, nbn is required to publish documents provided to FOI applicants within 10 working days after release. The information you seek may be published in full (as released to you) or with some additional exceptions as per section 11C of the FOI Act. For further information, visit our Disclosure Log on nbn's website.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions about your request.

Yours sincerely

Rohan Singh
Senior Legal Counsel
FOI Privacy & Knowledge Management