Hi [REDACTED]

I hope you are well and had a great weekend!

Are you ready for Black Friday and our Daily Deals? Because we are!

I've attached a Black Friday and Daily Deals posters which you can place around your office.

For Black Friday we'll have even hotter offers from your favourite retailers.

As for our Daily Deals, they are BACK - During the whole first week of December (2 - 8 December) we'll have sizzling offers every day. Some of them will be available only for 24 hours and some during the entire week! An email will also go out to your employees on 27th of November, Wednesday with information about our crazy week of offers.

Please let me know if you would like to exclude your members from the Daily Deals email list.

Thanks,
