1. I am writing to formally acknowledge receipt of your application for access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) dated, and received in this office, on 11 June 2014.
2. You have sought access to “documents, including advice that contributed to the development of the view that the implementation of the Korea-Australia Free Trade Agreement would require amendment to the Copyright Act 1968 as per paragraph 17 of the National Interest Analysis”.

Pursuant to section 15 of the FOI Act, a decision must be made in relation to your request on or before the expiration of 30 calendar days after the day on which the application was received. The timeframe may however be extended by an additional 30 days if formal consultation is required. You will be advised if this is the case, following consideration of the documents relevant to your request.
4. IP Australia will use the email address noted above to correspond with you regarding this request.

Yours sincerely
