Attachment A - FOI Review Rights

If you are dissatisfied with the decision of the Attorney-General's Department (the department), you may apply for internal review or Information Commissioner review of the decision.

The department encourages applicants to consider seeking internal review as a first step as it may provide a more rapid resolution of your concerns.

Internal review

Under section 54 of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act), applications for internal review must be made in writing within 30 days of the date of the decision letter. Applications for internal review must be lodged by email or post.

Strategy and Governance Branch
Attorney-General's Department
3-5 National Circuit
BARTON ACT 2600

An officer of the department other than the officer who made the original decision will complete the internal review within 30 days of receipt of your request.

Providing reasons you believe internal review of the decision is necessary will facilitate the completion of the internal review.

Information Commissioner review

Under section 54L of the FOI Act, you may apply to the Australian Information Commissioner to review this decision. An application for review by the Information Commissioner must be made in writing within 60 days of the date of the decision letter, and can be lodged in one of the following ways:

online: <https://forms.business.gov.au/aba/oaic/foi-review/>

email: enquiries@oaic.gov.au

post: GPO Box 5218, SYDNEY NSW 2001

in person: Level 3, 175 Pitt Street, SYDNEY NSW 2000

More information about Information Commissioner review is available on the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner website.
