Dear Mr Sturgen

Freedom of Information Request – FOI 20/58

Thank you for your email to the Department of Finance (Finance), dated 21 August 2020, in which you sought access to the following information:

The Mental Health Foundation of Australia (ABN 81006003363) has listed the Australian Government as a Gold Sponsor of the foundation.

I am seeking a list of dates and amounts of money that have been provided to the MHFA from the 1 July 2019 until the date this FOI request is processed which includes the government department name, and the purpose of the funding, if there was one.

This funding includes any financial payments made to the MHFA, including, but not limited to any form of financial assistance, sponsorship, donation or other like transaction.

On 27 August 2020, you re-scoped your request to the following, valid request:

The Mental Health Foundation of Australia (ABN 81006003363) has listed the Australian Government as a Gold Sponsor of the foundation.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 I am seeking any documents that evidence a list of dates and amounts of money that have been provided to the MHFA from the 1 July 2019 until the date this FOI request is received, which includes the government department name, and the purpose of the funding, if there was one.

This funding includes any financial payments made to the MHFA, including, but not limited to any form of financial assistance, sponsorship, donation or other like transaction.

On 31 August 2020, you were informed that the appropriate business area within Finance had been consulted, and it was unlikely that they held any documents that met the scope of your FOI request.

On 31 August 2020, you directed Finance to proceed with processing your request, undertake a full scoping search for the documents you requested, and move to a formal decision.

Authorised decision-maker

I am authorised by the Secretary under subsection 23(1) of the FOI Act to grant or deny access to documents under the FOI Act.

Decision

Under subparagraph 24A(1)(b)(ii) of the FOI Act, an agency may refuse a request for access to a document if the agency is satisfied that the document does not exist. In line with this provision, I have decided to refuse your request.

Reasons for Decision

In making my decision, I have had regard to the following:

- the scope of your FOI request;
- searches for any relevant documents held within Finance;
- the relevant provisions of the FOI Act; and
- the FOI Guidelines issued by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC Guidelines).

In coming to my decision, I have:

- consulted with the relevant business area of Finance, the Health Branch, who provide analysis and advice to government regarding healthy policy;
- ensured that thorough searches were undertaken of relevant Finance systems where any such documents are likely to have been recorded or retained; and
- ensured searches were undertaken of relevant electronic files where any such documents are likely to have been recorded or retained.

As a result of the searches and consultations, I am satisfied that all reasonable steps have been taken to find any documents that may fall within the scope of your request. As no such documents exist, I have decided to refuse your request.

Charges

I have decided that no charge is payable.

Review Rights

The process for review and appeal rights is set out at Attachment A.

Please contact the FOI Team on the above contact details if you wish to discuss your request.

Yours sincerely,

Jennifer Stace

Freedom of Information – Your Review Rights

If you disagree with the decision made by the Department of Finance (Finance) under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act), you can ask for the decision to be reviewed. You may want to seek review if you sought certain documents and were not given full access, if you have been informed that there will be a charge for processing your request, if you have made a contention against the release of documents that has not been agreed to by the Department, or if your application to have your personal information amended was not accepted. There are two ways you can ask for review of a decision: internal review by Finance, or external review by the Australian Information Commissioner.

Internal Review

If Finance makes an FOI decision that you disagree with, you can ask Finance to review its decision. The review will be carried out by a different agency officer, usually someone at a more senior level. There is no charge for internal review.

You must apply within 30 days of being notified of the decision, unless Finance agrees to extend the application time. You should contact Finance if you wish to seek an extension.

Finance is required to make a review decision within 30 days. If Finance does not do so, the original decision is considered to be affirmed.

How to apply for internal review

You must apply in writing and should include a copy of the notice of the decision provided and the points you are objecting and why. You can lodge your application in writing through one of the contact details provided at the end of this document.

Review by the Australian Information Commissioner (IC)

The IC is an independent office holder who can review the decisions of agencies and ministers under the FOI Act. The IC can review access refusal decisions (s 54L(2)(a) of the FOI Act), access grant decisions (s 54M(2)(a)), refusals to extend the period for applying for internal review under s 54B (s 54L(2)(c)), and agency internal review decisions under s 54C (ss 54L(2)(b) and 54M(2)(b)).

If you are objecting to a decision to refuse access to documents, impose a charge or refuse to amend a document, you must apply to the IC within 60 days of being given notice of the decision. If you are objecting to a decision to grant access to another person, you must apply within 30 days of being notified of that decision.

Do I have to go through Finance's internal review process first?

No. You may apply directly to the IC. However, going through Finance's internal review process gives Finance the opportunity to reconsider its initial decision, and your needs may be met more quickly without undergoing an external review process.

Do I have to pay?

No. Review by the IC is currently free.

How do I apply?

You must apply for IC review in writing and you can lodge your application in one of the following ways:

Post: Office of the Australian Information Commissioner
GPO Box 2999
CANBERRA ACT 2601
Email: enquiries@oaic.gov.au
Fax: 02 9284 9666
In person: Level 3
175 Pitt Street
SYDNEY NSW 2000

An electronic application form is also available on the OAIC's website (www.oaic.gov.au). Your application should include a copy of the notice of the decision that you are objecting to (if one was provided), and your contact details. You should also set out why you are objecting to the decision.

Making a complaint

You may make a written complaint to the IC about actions taken by Finance in relation to your application. However, if you are complaining that a Finance decision is wrong, it is treated as an application for review. For further information, see FOI fact sheet 13 – Freedom of Information: How to make a complaint.

When can I go to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT)?

Under the FOI Act, you must seek external review through the IC prior to applying to the AAT for such a review. The fee for lodging an AAT application is currently $884 (from 1 July 2016), although there are exemptions for health care and pension concession card holders and the AAT can waive the fee on financial hardship grounds.

Investigation by the Ombudsman

The Commonwealth Ombudsman can also investigate complaints about action taken by agencies under the FOI Act. However, if the issue complained about either could be or has been investigated by the IC, the Ombudsman will consult the Commissioner to avoid the same matter being investigated twice. If the Ombudsman decides not to investigate the complaint, then they are to transfer all relevant documents and information to the IC.

The IC can also transfer a complaint to the Ombudsman where appropriate. This could occur where the FOI complaint is only one part of a wider grievance about an agency's actions. It is unlikely that this will be common. You will be notified in writing if your complaint is transferred.

Applications to the Ombudsman should be directed to the following address:

Post: Commonwealth Ombudsman
PO Box 442
CANBERRA ACT 2601
Phone: 02 6276 0111
1300 362 072
