Dear Mr Smith,

Notice of Decision for Freedom of Information Request no. 2020/0101

The purpose of this letter is to give you a decision about access to documents that you have requested under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act).

Summary

I am an officer authorised under s 23(1) of the FOI Act to make decisions in relation to FOI requests.

You lodged an FOI request on 18 September 2020 for access to:

The actual dollar amounts paid by the AAT to Launch in association with CN3552941, CN3552945, and CN3650297.

I have liaised with the AAT's procurement and finance teams to locate any documents relevant to your request. As the AAT does not hold a discrete document containing the information requested, I have processed your request under section 17 of the FOI Act.

Decision

I have decided to grant full access to the document with irrelevant information redacted pursuant to section 22 of the FOI Act.

In making my decision, I have taken the following into account:

- the content of the documents that fall within the scope of your request;
- the FOI Act, specifically sections 17 and 22; and
- the guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under s 93A of the FOI Act (FOI Guidelines).

Reasons for my decision

Section 22 of the FOI Act – Information irrelevant to the request

Section 22 of the FOI Act provides that an agency may remove any information which can be reasonably regarded as irrelevant to the request for access.

In your request you have asked for access to 'the actual dollar amounts paid by the AAT to Launch in association with CN3552941, CN3552945, and CN3650297'. You have specifically asked for dollar amounts paid to Launch Recruitment. Although the document in question does reference CN3552945, no amounts were paid to Launch Recruitment under that contract notice. I have therefore decided that the information is irrelevant to your request and the information has been removed under section 22 of the FOI Act.

Your review rights

FOI 2 – Information about reviews and complaints under the Freedom of Information Act

Information about reviews and complaints under the Freedom of Information Act

What should I do prior to applying for internal review or contacting the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner?

Before you apply for an internal review or contact the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner, we recommend that you telephone the officer who made the FOI decision. It is often possible to resolve concerns or answer your questions using this approach and, if not, the officer will be able to assist you in applying for review.

How do I apply for internal review to the AAT?

You can apply to us for an internal review of the FOI decision. The application for internal review must be made within 30 days or such further period as we allow, after the day the decision is notified to you. To apply for an internal review you must do so in writing. You may also wish to explain why you are not satisfied with the decision. A different and more senior officer authorised under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) will conduct the internal review and make a new decision within 30 days after receipt of your application.

If you have already applied for internal review and want to seek a further review of that decision, you will need to apply to the Australian Information Commissioner.

How do I apply for review to the Australian Information Commissioner?

You may also apply directly to the Australian Information Commissioner for review of the FOI decision. The application for review must be made within 60 days after the day notice of the decision was given. An application for review must be in writing, include details of how notices in relation to the review are to be sent to you and include a copy of the decision. You may also wish to explain why you are not satisfied with the decision. An online application form is available on the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner's website, details of which are provided below.

What if I want to make a complaint about the handling of a Freedom of Information request?

If you have a complaint about the way in which we have processed your request for access under the FOI Act you can ask the Australian Information Commissioner to investigate. An online complaint form is available on the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner's website, details of which are provided below.

Where can I find further information or contact details for the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner?

Further information is available on the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner's website at www.oaic.gov.au and you can contact the office on 1300 363 992 or by email at enquiries@oaic.gov.au.
