Dear Mr Sweeney,

Freedom of Information Request No. 193-2020

Acknowledgement of Request

I refer to your request dated 30 September 2020 under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) in which you seek access to documents in the possession of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC).

Your request states:

The website below provides a copy of ASIC Superannuation (Amendment) Instrument 2018/474.

<https://www.legislation.gov.au/Details/F2018L00709>

The website states "No longer in force".

The document I seek is a document that would confirm the date on which the status of this Legislative Instrument was changed to "No longer in force".

As your request was received on 30 September 2020 and the 30-day statutory period for processing the request commenced on the day after the date of receipt, the due date to issue a decision on your request is 30 October 2020. You should, therefore, expect a decision to be made by Friday, 30 October 2020.

The 30-day processing period may be extended should ASIC find it is necessary to consult third parties, where a charge is to be imposed on the processing of the request or for other reasons. You will be advised if there are changes to the 30-day processing period.

Please note that any documents released to you under the FOI Act may later be published online on the ASIC disclosure log in accordance with our obligation to do so under the Act. This requirement to publish released documents is subject to certain exceptions for example, personal or business information will not be published where it would be unreasonable.

If you have any questions or wish to discuss, please contact me at fleur.forsyth@asic.gov.au.

Yours sincerely,

(Authorised decision maker under section 23(1) of the FOI Act)
