Dear Mr Fairless

Re: Freedom of Information Request

I refer to your current request for access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) to the following documents in relation to an incident at Hamad International Airport in Doha:

"1. A copy of the original email sent from the employee in question.

2. The email chain showing to whom within the department the email was forwarded to (for example, if the email has been forwarded or replied to)

For obvious reasons, I am happy to exclude as irrelevant any information about the employee who made the concern (including their name, contact information or position). I also consent to the redaction of the names of other employees and their contact details, however not their position descriptions."

Preliminary searches for documents relevant to your request have been completed.

I am an officer authorised under section 23 of the FOI Act to make decisions on the charge for processing your request. I have decided that you are liable to pay a charge. Based on the number of relevant pages, processing time and time taken by the decision maker (once appointed) to assess your request (noting that the first five hours are free of charge), our preliminary assessment of the amount of that charge is $54.17.

Please note that at this stage in the FOI process, no decision has been made as to whether the information you seek will be released or exempt under the FOI Act. My decision at this stage relates only to the processing charges.

Under section 29 of the FOI Act, you now have 30 days within which to:

- agree to pay the charge;
- contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed;
- or
- withdraw your request.

Should you agree to pay the charge, the Freedom of Information (Fees & Charges) Regulations requires that you pay a deposit of $20.00 before processing commences.

If you choose to pay only the deposit amount at this stage, you will be required to pay the remainder of the charge prior to the release of any documents.

Your payment method options are outlined in the attachment.

Contend the Charge

Should you contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed, you may apply for the department to waive or reduce the charge. The department will take into account whether:

- the payment of the fee or a part of the fee would cause you financial hardship; and
- the giving of access to documents relevant to your request is in the general public interest or in the interest of a substantial section of the public.

A departmental decision-maker will take into account any considerations you put forward and will make a decision on whether the charge should be imposed, and in what amount.

Processing period / Withdrawal

Section 31 of the FOI Act provides that the 30-day processing period to assess your request is put on hold until we receive your payment of the deposit, payment of the charges in full, or we decide not to impose a charge. Should you withdraw your request at this stage, no charge will be imposed.

If we do not receive your response to this letter within 30 days of its receipt, I will consider that you no longer wish to continue with your request, and I will deem it withdrawn.

Narrow Scope of Request

Finally, you may elect to narrow the scope of your request, which may reduce the applicable charge.

Should you have any queries, or wish to discuss revising the terms of your request, please contact me by email at foi@dfat.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
