Dear Mr Parnell,

Freedom of Information Request: FOI 39051

Decision

1. The Department of Veterans' Affairs (Department) has undertaken a reasonable search of its records and has not been able to identify documents relevant to your request.
2. For this reason, I have made a decision to refuse your request under section 24A of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act), as the documents do not exist.

Authority to make this decision

3. I, Jess (Position Number 62227602), Information Access Officer, Information Law Section, am an officer authorised by the Secretary of the Department to make decisions about access to documents in the possession of the Department in accordance with section 23(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act).

Summary

4. On 5 November 2020 you made a request for access to documents in the possession of the Department. Your request was made in the following terms:

'...What bonuses were paid & how much to DVA Secretary, staff, contractors, lawyers and Contracted Medical Advisers by the Australian Governments bonus payments today 5/11/2020. If the date is incorrect within the last and next 2 weeks.'

5. As no extensions of time have been applied to process your request, a decision on your request is due by 7 December 2020.
6. I have decided not to impose a charge in relation to this request, in accordance with Regulation 8 of the Freedom of Information (Charges) Regulations 2019.

Material taken into account

7. In accordance with section 26(1)(a) of the FOI Act, my findings on any material question of fact, the material on which those findings were based and the reasons for my decision to refuse access to the documents follows.
8. I have taken the following material into account in making my decision:
- the terms of your request dated 5 November 2020;
 - the types of documents that are in the possession of the Department;
 - Sections 3, 11 and 11A of the FOI Act which give the Australian community a legally enforceable right to obtain access to information held by the Government of the Commonwealth. I also considered the following provisions of the FOI Act relevant to my decision:
 - Section 23 of the FOI Act (Decisions to be made by Authorised Persons)
 - section 24A of the FOI Act (Requests may be refused if documents cannot be found, do not exist or have not been received) relevant to my decision;
 - the Guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under section 93A of the FOI Act (FOI Guidelines);
 - searches undertaken by relevant business areas of the Department; and

- consultations with relevant business areas in relation to the subject matter of your request.

9. A full extract of all FOI Act provisions used to make my decision are provided in Schedule 1.

Reasons for decision

Requests may be refused if documents cannot be found, do not exist or have not been received (section 24A)

10. Section 24A(1) of the FOI Act provides that an agency or Minister may refuse a request for access to a document if:

- (a) all reasonable steps have been taken to find the document; and
- (b) the agency or Minister is satisfied that the document:
 - (i) is in the agency's or Minister's possession but cannot be found; or
 - (ii) does not exist.

11. I am satisfied that all reasonable steps have been taken to find information relevant to your request, having regard to:

- the terms of your request;
- the subject matter of the documents;
- the current and past file management systems and the practice of orderly destruction or removal of documents;
- the Department's record management systems and practices; and
- the individuals and areas within the Department who may be able to assist with the location of the information you seek access to.

12. Following consultation with the Department's People Services Branch, the Department was unable to locate any documents relevant to your request. The People Services Branch advised that Department staff, including the Secretary, full-time office holders, contractors, lawyers and Contracted Medical Advisers are not eligible to receive any bonuses.

13. As such, despite the reasonable searches undertaken, the Department has been unable to identify any documents relevant to your request. The reason for this is that documents matching the description of your request do not exist.
14. For these reasons, I am refusing your request for access to documents as described in your request in accordance with section 24A(1)(b)(ii) of the FOI Act.
