Dear Richard,

Application for documents under Freedom of Information Act 1982 (“the Act”)

I refer to your email dated 18 November 2020 to which you have sought information under the Act, in relation to the following documents:

1. Documents detailing the number of invoices sent to Tourism Australia by the multinational consulting firm KPMG (including any subsidiaries or joint ventures owned or controlled by KPMG) covering the period from 1st July 2005 to 30th June 2007; and
2. Documents detailing the total amount claimed for each invoice sent to Tourism Australia by the multinational consulting firm KPMG (including any subsidiaries or joint ventures owned or controlled by KPMG) covering the period from 1st July 2005 to 30th June 2007.

We received your request on 18 November 2020 and the 30 day statutory period for processing your request commenced from the day after that date.

You will be notified of any charges in relation to your request as soon as possible, before we process any requested documents or impose a final charge.

Please also note information released under the Act may later be published online on our Tourism Australia disclosure log, (<http://www.tourism.australia.com/en/about/our-organisation/our-performance-and-reporting/freedom-of-information.html#disclosure-log>) subject to certain exceptions. For example, personal information will not be published where this would be unreasonable.

For future correspondence relating to this request we will contact you using the email address you provided.

Yours sincerely

Mark Craig
