Dear Karen Reynolds

Freedom of Information request — Notification of Decision

Thank you for your correspondence of 15 April 2021, in which you requested access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) to documents held by the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA).

The purpose of this letter is to provide you with a decision on your request.

Scope of your request

You have requested access to documents about the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS). Specifically, you requested access to:

"...I request a copy of any report, actuarial figures, documents, emails or other information relating to the information in this story about 'postcode disparity' between funding levels and any aligned information provided to the Minister, including details about thin markets, demographic information about CALD and ATSI status and other factors that may impact upon funding levels.

On 7 May 2021 you revised the scope of your request to be for the following documents:

- "...a copy of any report or data provided to Minister Roberts and/or his office during the period that immediately preceded his public speaking on this matter and which was in response to a request by his office for disaggregation of data by federal electorate (which is not usually collated by the Agency).
- A copy of the Minister's email request for the data, or a copy of any email that asked for information to be provided in a format that was disaggregated by federal electorate rather than usual NDIA reporting format
- a copy of any information that related to the above correspondence and the provision of a report to Minister Roberts office and/or DSS
- a copy of the actual report or data that was provided"

Decision on access to documents

I am authorised to make decisions under the FOI Act. My decision on your request and the reasons for my decision are set out below.

I have identified two documents (including attachments) which fall within the scope of your request.

Delivered by the National Disability Insurance Agency The documents were identified by conducting searches of NDIA's systems, using all reasonable search terms that could return documents relevant to your request, and consulting with relevant NDIA staff who could be expected to be able to identify documents within the scope of the request.

I have decided to grant access to two documents in full.

In reaching my decision, I took into account the following materials:

- your correspondence outlining the scope of your request;
- the nature and content of the documents falling within the scope of your request;
- the FOI Act;
- the FOI Guidelines;
- consultation with relevant NDIA staff; and
- the NDIA's operating environment and functions.

Access to edited copies with exempt or irrelevant material deleted (section 22)

I have identified that documents falling within the scope of your request contain material that is irrelevant to your request. The irrelevant material relates to staff names and contact information, as well as information included within an email chain which is not relevant to the subject matter of your request.

In accordance with section 22 of the FOI Act, I have considered whether it is possible to delete the irrelevant material from the documents and have concluded that it is reasonably practicable to do so. Accordingly, I have prepared an edited copy of the documents with the irrelevant material removed.

Release of documents

The documents for release, as referred to in the Schedule of Documents at Attachment A, are enclosed.

Further, given that requests for data broken down by electorate are regularly made by members of parliament, you may wish to search the Parliament of Australia website, if you are seeking further information about electorates, with an example found here, which may assist you in your search.

Rights of review

Your rights to seek a review of my decision, or lodge a complaint, are set out at Attachment B.

Should you have any enquiries concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me by email at foi@ndis.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Ausilia Woodhead
