Dear Ms Lovich

Freedom of Information Request – Decision

I refer to your request to the Treasury on 6 June 2021, for access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) to the following:

I request under FOI Documents prepared for meeting with Pfizer in July 2020 regarding the procurement of the Pfizer Vaccine for Australia.

This includes:

- - documents prepared for representatives of the Australian government regarding scope of negotiations/procurement authority and limits to authority to make an agreement between the Australian government and Pfizer.
- - any notes taken at the meeting of 10 July 2020 between Australian government and Pfizer (including the names of Australian Government attendees)
- - any reports on the outcome of that meeting of 10 July 2020 between Australian government and Pfizer
- - any notes taken at any meeting during the period 1 June 2020 - 30 July 2020 between Australian government and Pfizer
- - any reports on the outcome of any meeting during the period 1 June 2020 - 30 July 2020 between Australian government and Pfizer.

I am an authorised decision maker under section 23 of the FOI Act.

Decision

The Treasury holds no documents within the scope of your request. I am, therefore, refusing your request under section 24A(1) of the FOI Act.

I arranged for officers in my division to search Treasury records for material relevant to your request. These searches included searches of emails and the Treasury's file management system. I am satisfied that no such documents exist.

Rights of Review

A statement setting out your rights of review in this matter is attached.

Yours sincerely

John Swieringa
Acting First Assistant Secretary
Social Policy Division

INFORMATION ON RIGHTS OF REVIEW

1. APPLICATION FOR INTERNAL REVIEW OF DECISION

Section 54 of the Freedom of Information Act gives you the right to apply for an internal review of the decision refusing to grant access to documents in accordance with your request.

An application for a review of the decision must be made in writing within 30 days of receipt of this letter.

No particular form is required but it would assist the decision-maker if you could set out in the application the grounds on which you consider that the decision should be reviewed.

An application for a review of the decision should be emailed to FOI@Treasury.gov.au.

OR

2. APPLICATION TO AUSTRALIAN INFORMATION COMMISSIONER (INFORMATION COMMISSIONER) FOR REVIEW OF DECISION

Section 54L of the FOI Act gives you the right to seek a review of the decision from the Information Commissioner. An application for review must be made within 60 days of receiving the decision.

An application for review must be in writing and must:

- give details of how notices must be sent to you; and
- include a copy of the notice of decision.

You should send your application for review to:

The Information Commissioner
Office of the Australian Information Commissioner
GPO Box 5218
SYDNEY NSW 2001

AND/OR

3. COMPLAINTS TO THE INFORMATION COMMISSIONER

Section 70 of the FOI Act provides that a person may complain to the Information Commissioner about action taken by an agency in the exercise of powers or the performance of functions under the FOI Act.

A complaint to the Information Commissioner must be in writing and identify the agency the complaint is about. It should be directed to the following address:

The Information Commissioner
Office of the Australian Information Commissioner
GPO Box 5218
SYDNEY NSW 2001

The Information Commissioner may decline to investigate the complaint in a number of circumstances, including that you did not exercise your right to ask the agency, the Information Commissioner, a court or tribunal to review the decision.
